Campbellsville University to host Bethlehem Baptist associate pastor for upcoming revival and chapel

By Caleb Harris, student news writer

CAMPBELLSVILLE, Ky. -- The Rev. Brian Jennings, associate pastor of Bethlehem Baptist Church of Cunningham, Ky., will lead Campbellsville University in her Sept. 15 chapel service as well as speak at the revival, which will run from Monday, Sept. 13 through Thursday, Sept. 16, in Ransdell Chapel, 401 N. Hoskins Ave., Campbellsville.

Jennings will speak at the chapel service at 10 a.m. and at the revival at 7 p.m. Both chapel and the revival are open to the public.

The theme of the revival is "Love, Worship and Witness." Campbellsville University's revivals are yearly opportunities hosted by Baptist Campus Ministry.

Jennings has spoken for retreats, revivals, conferences, churches and camps in nine different states, and has also received the Joe B. Brown preaching award from Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary.

Jennings has served as associate pastor of Bethlehem Baptist Church since July 2010.

He graduated from Virginia Tech in 2005 with a bachelor's degree in finance, and went on to obtain his Master of Divinity degree from the Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary in 2009.

In a short time, Jennings has held several positions in the church including: youth pastor and associate pastor of Temple Baptist Church in Raleigh, N.C.; and camp pastor of Lifeway Fuge Camps.

He maintains an online blog at: entiregospel.wordpress.com.

Jennings is the son of Don and Lori Jennings, and the husband of Emily Reid Jennings.

All chapels are open to the public free of charge and are televised live on WLCU (Comcast Cable channel 10) and are streamed live on the Internet. Go to www.campbellsville.edu, click on the media tab, select WLCU-TV and follow the prompts to Live Video Streaming.
