

Program Overview

The heart of the School of Theology is to produce world changers. We carry out this task as an act of worship to God through Jesus Christ. The tools for the task consist of a comprehensive program of Christian studies within the context of a fellowship of learners dedicated to searching for and living within the truth under the guidance of the Holy Spirit. This is done as an integral part of the mission and core values of Campbellsville University.

The School of Theology identifies world changers as persons who are . . .

- Passionately evangelical: who are passionate about God's good news in Jesus Christ and who have a strong desire for others to experience life in Him;
- Rooted in the Biblical story: who love God's powerful Word and who in community with others are learning, knowing, trusting, and following the Sacred Scriptures which are able, from beginning to end, to show the way to salvation in Jesus Christ;
- Church-connected: who have a high view of the local church, but whose field of vision does not limit ministry to within the "four walls" and who see the local church as a base from which to go out into the world;
- Servant leaders: who are of high moral character and kingdom hearted; who are developing Jesus' qualities of servant leadership and who in turn develop servant leaders;
- Spiritual entrepreneurs: who are creative and energized by the possibilities of what God and faithful persons can do together; builders who start with nothing and see spiritual dreams take shape; inventors capable of reinvention to maintain effective ministry; and
- Partners in an enduring fellowship: who make an impact for Christ during their student days; alumni who display an abiding love for and commitment toward the University; brotherhoods and sisterhoods, forged at CU, that are fruitful for ministry well beyond graduation.

Purpose

The faculty, committed by faith and empowered by the Spirit to produce world changers, pursues a fourfold purpose to nurture, engage, equip, and send the students, with whom they form a fellowship in, through, and for Christ. The faculty seek to . . .

- nurture, to cultivate each student's personal relationship with God, enrich each student's maturity of faith and knowledge about God, and assist in the development of Christian discipleship;
- engage, to lead students to a deeper understanding of the scriptures as well as the will and purpose of God for individuals, families, communities, and societies;
- equip, to assist in preparing students for the vocational calling of following Christ in all areas of life: church-related, para-church, missions, and secular;
- send, to carry the school's educational work within and beyond the walls of the campus to fulfill the mission of the University and the Christian faith.

School of Theology degrees are designed to graduate able Christian ministers whose training also prepares them for further educational growth in graduate professional or graduate academic theological education.
