Dear Mr. Wang Dongyu and Mr. Li Jun,

Campbellsville University is very pleased that you are working with us to develop the special Renmin University of China-Campbellsville University Masters of Business Administration (MBA) program on the Louisville, KY campus. We are excited about this wonderful arrangement between our universities and the opportunities for students from China.

With the MBA Orientation set for December 19, 2010, we anticipate students will complete their first four (4) courses at Renmin and then finish their studies at our campus in Louisville, KY, USA. This traditional American MBA features quality professional faculty and is fully accredited by the International Assembly for Collegiate Business Education (IACBE).

The University is accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools (SACS). Campbellsville University is rated in the top 25 schools in the South by US News & World Report, and is listed as the #3 "Up and Coming School". Students will be able to see more details at our CULouisville MBA website for international students.

The Louisville Center of Campbellsville University provides a unique environment conducive to learning. High technology components and the on-site Montgomery Library facilitate the research that is so important for quality graduate education. Mass transportation and student housing are available just a few steps from the front door.

Campbellsville University, its faculty and staff look forward to meeting our new students from Renmin University. We know that they will be well prepared and become esteemed graduates of Campbellsville University in Louisville.

Yours truly,

H. Keith Spears
Vice President, Campbellsville University
