

Policy Relating to Non-Cash Gifts To Campbellsville University

Campbellsville University gratefully accepts appropriate non-cash gifts. Gifts to Campbellsville University are tax deductible in keeping with the policies of the IRS and of the best guidelines for gifts in kind to institutions. The following policies have been established.

1. Non-cash gifts donated to Campbellsville University become the permanent property of the University and may be utilized or disposed of as may serve the stated goals and objectives of the University.
2. The selection of non-cash materials for campus utilization will be made by the Administration of the University.
3. Appraisal of a gift to the University for income tax credit is considered the responsibility of the donor. In accordance with provisions of the Federal Income Tax Code, the University does not offer appraisals since it is the interested party in receiving the gift. The University Office of Development will provide a receipt to the donor based on the evaluation provided by the donor. A statement signed by a qualified appraiser must accompany gifts valued at $1,000 or more.
