Faith in Focus - August Monthly Highlights

Events

Welcome Week Festivities

To kick off the new year, Campbellsville University hosted Welcome Week festivities, and the Center for Faith and Ministry was excited to join in. We connected with students at the Ice Cream Social and Festival, sharing what the Center offers, inviting them to sign up for the 24-Hour Prayer Tent, and promoting our Buckner shoe drive with keychain giveaways. We also set up a lemonade stand where students enjoyed making their own drinks.

Upcoming Event! Mission's Week

September 22nd-26th, Campbellsville University will host the annual Mission's Week. Wednesday, September 24th at 11am starts the 24-hr Prayer Tent, which will last until Thursday, September 25th at 11am. The tent will be held in the Student Activity Center on Campbellsville University's campus.

All are invited to visit, and we hope to see you there.

Upcoming Ministry! Buckner International

September 23rd through October 9th, we are partnering with Buckner International to collect new shoes for those in need. Drop new shoes in the Buckner boxes located around campus, or bring donations directly to the Center. All donations will be delivered to our Buckner contact in Corbin, KY later in October.

Faith Partners

Faith Partner Spotlight Campbellsville Baptist Church

"Gather, grow, and go," is the moto for Campbellsville Baptist Church, says Nathan Johnson, the Pastor for College and Discipleship Ministries. Pastor Johnson oversees the church's discipleship, or as he called it, their 'grow component', the church comes together to disciple one another with the purpose to "go and share that [the Gospel] with other people." Campbellsville is the next big focus for missions and Johnson explains that the church is "trying to get people out of their comfort zone...out into the mission field, out into the world." Their small groups are already leading in ministry activities by supporting some CU sports teams, as well as they hosted three summer block parties at Miller Park to "help feed the families that don't get food through the school programs." Another ministry which Pastor Nathan is starting will be held on Campbellsville University's campus in the Welcome Center. This is a time to meet with available students, encourage one another, pray together and "pray for the campus," as well as share the gospel. All in all, the focus from Campbellsville Baptist is to offer "Community, Discipleship, and Service" and Pastor Johnson encourages those who "find a place to serve...Go serve."
