Holiday Appreciation Dinner

The Center for Faith and Ministry recently had the privilege of hosting Dr. Robert Smith as the speaker for our new Holiday Appreciation Dinner. We were honored to welcome our Faith Partners and their spouses for an evening of fellowship, worship, and an encouraging message from Dr. Smith. Concluding the night, we held a special giveaway in which one couple received a one-night stay at The Kentucky Castle.

Congratulations to the winning couple, Dr. Kenny J. Craig and his wife, Paula, from Greensburg Baptist Church!

Dr Robert Smith

We would like to extend our heartfelt thanks to Dr. Smith for spending several days with us and delivering two powerful and inspiring messages. Dr. Smith faithfully served as preaching professor at Beeson Divinity School for 27 years before retiring last year.

He is a world-renowned speaker and proclaimer. He is the recipient of numerous awards, and we are truly grateful that he took the time to bring encouragement to our campus and community as we enter this holiday season.

Upcoming Event!

Christmas at the Cabin

Our annual Christmas stressbuster is coming up on December 9th at 10 am. The campus and community are invited to join us to celebrate the closing of the fall semester and the upcoming holiday with Christmas activities, pictures with Santa, a hot-chocolate bar, and a time to reflect on what you're thankful for.

TableTalk with Dr. Joel Carwile

The Center invited Dr. Carwile, a long-term pastor and proud CU alum, to speak to our students at our monthly TableTalk. He currently serves as pastor at Crosspointe Church in Madison, Alabama. Guests enjoyed a warm meal followed by an engaging talk in which Dr. Carwile shared his passion for missions and church ministry.
