Field Practicum:

Students seeking a degree in social work from Campbellsville University must conduct 450 hours of direct field practice at an approved agency and complete a weekly seminar, either in-person or online. In order for the social work field director to help the student select an appropriate fieldwork placement, the following information is needed. This information is for the purpose of:

- ⌚ protecting clients
- ⌚ enabling the Program to respond to certain agency requirements for persons working in the agency. (Some agencies may also require specific background checks/disclosures, urine or blood analysis; these will be addressed on an individual basis.)

Disclosure of this information will not in and of itself preclude admission to the Social Work Program. Instead, program faculty will discuss your individual situation with you in order to help both you and the Program determine whether it is likely that you will meet the professional and ethical responsibilities of social work education and practice.

No student will be accepted in the Social Work Program prior to completion of this statement and its submission to the program director.

Social Work Professional and Technical Standards

MASTERS AND BACHELORS DEGREE PROGRAMS

The technical standards outlined below are required for completion of programs from the Carver School of Social Work at Campbellsville University. These standards describe the physical, cognitive, emotional and behavioral requirements of social work students. They are designed to provide an overview of non-academic criteria required for students to fully participate in all aspects of coursework and the field practicum.

1. Observation: Students must be able to:

- ⌚ Accurately observe clients to effectively assess their situations.
- ⌚ Have the sensory and motor abilities to carry out effectively the necessary assessment activities.

2. Communication: Students must be able to:

- ⌚ Communicate effectively with other students, faculty, staff, clients, and other professionals, and exemplify a willingness and ability to listen to others.
- ⌚ Demonstrate effective communication in presentations, written assignments, small group settings, and through electronic means.
- ⌚ Perceive and interpret nonverbal communication.
- ⌚ Use spoken and written English to understand the content presented in the program.
- ⌚ Comprehend reading assignments and search and evaluate the literature.
- ⌚ Demonstrate competency in writing skills.

3. Sensory and Motor Functions: Students must have sufficient sensory and motor abilities to:

- ⌚ Attend/participate in class and complete the required number of hours during their field practicum.
- ⌚ To attend and perform safely and satisfactorily in the classroom/online setting and in social work agency settings.

4. Intellectual, Conceptual, Integrative and Quantitative Functions: Students must have the ability to:

- ⌚ Think critically, analyze and interpret objective and subjective data, and apply effective problem-solving skills. These skills allow students to make proper assessments, use sound judgment, appropriately prioritize therapeutic interventions, and measure and report client outcomes.
- ⌚ Demonstrate cognitive ability to effectively use and apply program's knowledge/skills.

5. Self-Awareness: Students must exhibit:

- ⌚ Knowledge and openness to learning how one's values, attitudes, beliefs, emotions and past experiences affect thinking, behavior and relationships.
- ⌚ Willingness to examine and change their behavior when appropriate and work effectively with others in subordinate positions as well as with those in authority.

6. Emotional and Mental Stability: Students must demonstrate the ability to:

- ⌚ Deal with current life stressors through the use of appropriate coping mechanisms effectively by using appropriate self-care and developing supportive relationships with colleagues, peers, and others.
- ⌚ Effectively use help for medical or emotional problems that interfere with academic and clinical performance.

Professional Performance Standards

The Carver School of Social Work recognizes that preparation for professional practice requires more than scholastic achievement. The program expects students to exhibit behaviors that are consistent with professional performance. Such behavior is expected not only in the classroom but throughout the University and the larger community. Some specific examples of professional performance standards are outlined below.

Students must demonstrate:

- ⌚ A commitment to the goals of social work and to the ethical standards of the profession, as specified in the NASW Code of Ethics.
- ⌚ The essential values of social work including the respect for the dignity and worth of every individual and his/her right to a just share of society's resources (social justice).
- ⌚ Behaviors that are in compliance with program policies, institutional policies, professional ethical standards, and societal laws in the classroom, field and community.
- ⌚ Responsible and accountable behavior by knowing and practicing within the scope of social work, respecting others, being punctual and dependable, prioritizing responsibilities, attending class regularly, observing deadlines, completing assignments on time, keeping appointments or making appropriate arrangements, and accepting supervision and criticism in a positive manner.
- ⌚ A commitment to serve in an appropriate manner all persons in need of assistance, regardless of the person's age, class, race, religious affiliation (or lack of), gender, disability, sexual orientation and/or value system.

I have read, understand and acknowledge receipt of the Social Work Professional and Technical Standards.
