Educational SUCCESS

KENTUCKY ETV

The Kentucky Education and Training Voucher (ETV) Program is a federally-funded, state-administered program that provides financial, academic and human support for young adults who've left the foster care system and are enrolled in qualified colleges, universities or vocational education programs.

WHAT CAN YOU RECEIVE?

Participating students work with an Education Support Coach to receive academic coaching, connection to wrap-around services and financial assistance. ETV provides up to $5,000 a year to an eligible young person for school-related expenses such as:

- Tuition, Federal Student Loans, Balances due
- Books and school supplies
- Food and meal cards
- On-campus room and board or rent

Funds can also be used for: study abroad through qualifying schools, transportation, health insurance premium costs, disability services, dependent childcare expenses to licensed child care providers.
