

Partner Agreement

Campbellsville Independent Schools

And

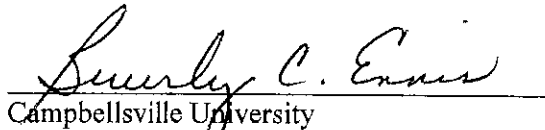

Campbellsville University

Hereby enter into an agreement to enable the applicant, Campbellsville Independent Schools, and co-applicant, Taylor County Public Library, to maximize resources to support and jointly coordinate services for children and families participating in the 21st Century Community Learning Centers Program.

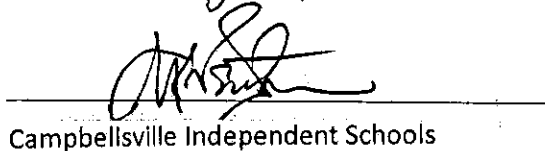

Campbellsville University hereby agrees and is committed to the following responsibilities to support the 21st Century Community Learning Centers Program.

- Promote awareness of program.
- Recruit and refer students and families.
- Provide university students in good standing to help with programs.
- Provide in-kind educational activities.
- Provide parent activities as needed.
- Jointly sponsor professional development activities for staff.
- Share responsibility for program outcomes and assist with action plan for improvement.
- Review and comment on annual 21st Century Community Learning Centers local evaluation for program improvement.

It is agreed by both parties that this co-applicant agreement will focus on coordination of services to build local support for sustaining the 21st Century Community Learning Centers Program. Through this collaborative process, solutions will be developed and implemented to improve student achievement and increase learning opportunities for families of participants.
