Job Description
Job Description: Campbellsville University is seeking applications for a full-time music faculty position of Assistant Professor of Music with specialization in Woodwinds, single-reed. This full-time tenure-track position will include teaching applied woodwinds (clarinet and saxophone) to undergraduate and graduate students and woodwinds methods. Other teaching duties will be assigned depending on the candidate's qualifications, experience, and the need of the School of music from the following: music theory, music history, music technology, music education, and ensembles. The position will also include an active role in recruitment, retention, and advising of undergraduate and graduate students. The candidate is expected to work in close collaboration with colleagues, to accept other faculty assignments, such as service on university committees, and be committed to teaching excellence and service in a Christian environment. Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled. The above job description is not intended to be an all-inclusive list of the duties and responsibilities of the position. Instead, it aims to give a general overview of the skills and abilities to do the job. Qualifications: The successful candidate will hold a master's degree in the area, a terminal degree in music of ABD to be obtained at least within one year of starting employment at Campbellsville University. Individuals applying for this position should have had previous university-level teaching experience or as a professional performer, or a combination of both. The successful candidate should possess outstanding interpersonal, verbal, and writing skills. Also, the candidate will have the ability to work confidently and independently and complete work without direct supervision, while showing a commitment to working in a team environment and with the mission of the University. Campbellsville University, a comprehensive Christian institution offering undergraduate (associate and baccalaureate) and graduate (master's level) programs, stresses academic excellence solidly grounded in the liberal arts, personal growth, integrity, and fellowship within a caring environment. Campbellsville University is centrally located in the heart of Kentucky and has been listed in US News and World Report as one of "America's Best

Colleges” for 18 consecutive years. The University seeks to prepare students to enrich their own lives through lifelong learning, to contribute to their respective disciplines through continued scholarship, and to advance society as Christian servant leaders. An employee of Campbellsville University is expected to participate in the life of a local church in keeping with the spirit of the institutional mission statement and core values. The individual employee is expected to conduct him, or herself, both on campus and off, in a manner becoming an employee of a Christian institution, and the employee should uphold the highest standards of conduct in terms of honesty, truthfulness, respectful attitude, and conduct toward others. Each individual associated with Campbellsville University is to perform his or her daily responsibilities mindful of the intent of the institutional mission statement and core values.
