GENERAL INFORMATION

Introduction to Campbellsville University

Campbellsville University is a private, post secondary educational institution founded in 1906 and affiliated with the Kentucky Baptist Convention.

Location of the University

The University is located on a 70 acre campus within the city of Campbellsville, Kentucky (population 11,000) in the geographical center of Kentucky at the intersection of routes KY 55 & 210 with US68. It is located approximately 40 miles southeast of Elizabethtown, Kentucky.

History of the University

The University began classes in 1907 as the Russell Creek Academy in order to provide secondary/preparatory education for young people preparing for college as well as theological education for laypersons and clergy of the Baptist and other Protestant churches. In 1933, the University gained admission to the Kentucky Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, and in 1949 was accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools (SACS) as a junior college. In 1963, the University achieved accreditation as a liberal arts senior college and became a full member of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools. In 1996, with the blessings of SACS, the trustees of the college changed the status of the institution to that of a University, accredited to offer coursework at levels I, II and III of post secondary education.

Mission of the University

Campbellsville University is a comprehensive, Christian institution that offers undergraduate and graduate programs. The university stresses academic excellence solidly grounded in the liberal arts, personal growth, integrity, and fellowship within a caring environment. The university seeks to prepare students to enrich their own lives through life long learning, to contribute to their respective disciplines through continued scholarship, and to improve society as Christian servant leaders.

Core Values

- To provide academic excellence and quality programs throughout the university;
- To offer an environment conducive for student success;
- To practice strong, effective stewardship;
- To strive to be a caring, Christ-centered community of learners.

Student Responsibilities

It is the responsibility of the graduate student to become familiar with the general regulations for graduate study and their appropriate program of study requirements as stated in this bulletin. The graduate student is also responsible for completing all program requirements within the permitted time limit for each graduate program.

Admission to graduate programs does not imply admission to candidacy for a degree. When nine hours have been completed, the student must apply for degree candidacy. Requirements for degree candidacy are nine hours of classes completed at Campbellsville University, no incomplete grades and a GPA of 3.0 or higher. Degree candidacy is an opportunity to permit the graduate faculty of a graduate program to review the work of the applicant and determine the capability of the student to complete the program. If the conditions are not met, degree candidacy will be delayed until 15 hours are completed. Students will not be permitted to enroll in classes after 15 hours have been earned if degree candidacy has not been obtained.

Graduate study is typically more research oriented, more specialized and more rigorous than undergraduate work. Therefore, graduate students are expected to show independence toward seeking knowledge and reflect a mature and professional attitude toward scholarly endeavor. Due to the demands of graduate work, students are expected to exercise time management skills and organizational skills enabling them to maintain successful levels of work.

Degree Application

All candidates for graduation must complete an Application for Graduation in accordance with a schedule distributed by the Office of Student Records at the beginning of the fall trimester of the school year in which the degree work is to be completed.

Library Resources

The Montgomery Library houses more than 120,000 volumes in its total collection and is extensively connected to a vast quantity of academic resources through specialized Internet research engines. New graduate students should approach the University Librarian, Mr. John Burch, related to the acquisition of appropriate passwords. Library loan services are also available as needed. Standard resource instructions may be obtained by visiting the University web site to access the University's database: <http://www.campbellsville.edu>.

Computer Education

A full range of courses in Computer Information Systems is available through the CIS Department of the College of Arts and Sciences. All of them are available to graduate students wishing to enroll. Each graduate student is encouraged to own or have access to a computer with a personal e-mail address for purposes of communication with faculty and classmates. Research support through the use of computers in the Library, Technology Training Center, or Computer Centers may also be available by appointment.

Tuition and Fees

Graduate students should consult with the Business Office staff for accurate information related to tuition and fees for any academic year.

Housing

Applications for student housing should be made as soon as possible before the beginning of any given academic year or semester. Students wishing to live in campus housing should inquire of the Director of Resident Life (270-789-5005), and students wishing to live in University-owned off-campus housing may apply by calling the Office of the Vice President of Finance and Administration (270-789-5304).

Equal Opportunity

In compliance with federal law, including provisions of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, Campbellsville University does not illegally discriminate on the basis of race, gender, color, national or ethnic origin, age, disability, or military service in its administration of education policies, programs, or activities; admissions policies; or employment. Under federal law, the University may discriminate on the basis of religion in order to fulfill its purposes. Inquiries or complaints should be directed to Director of Human Resources, Campbellsville University, UPO Box 784, 1 University Drive, Campbellsville, KY 42718.

Compliance With the Rehabilitation and American Disabilities Acts

No qualified individual with a documented disability shall be excluded from participation in, denied benefits or, or otherwise subjected to discrimination in any of Campbellsville University's programs, courses, services and/or activities in compliance with the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990. Requests for reasonable accommodations in programs, courses, services and/or activities requires current (i.e. within 3 years) documentation of the disability after acceptance to the university and before registration.

Campbellsville University is committed to reasonable accommodations for students who have documented physical and learning disabilities, as well as medical and emotional conditions. If you have a documented disability or condition of this nature, you may be eligible for disability services. Documentation must be from a licensed professional and current in terms of assessment. Please contact the Coordinator of Disability Services at 270-789-5192 to inquire about services.

Disabilities

According to the Americans with Disabilities Act, a person with a disability is one who:

- has a physical or mental impairment which substantially limits a major life activity
- has a record of history of such impairment, or
- is regarded as having such an impairment.

Documentation

The Coordinator of Disability Services will ask for documentation to verify the disability, and if appropriate, will cooperate with instructors and Academic Support services to facilitate and track accommodations and services.

No accommodation will be provided without documentation. In addition, Campbellsville University will be unable to provide accommodations in the classroom if the student does not give permission to notify faculty that accommodations are needed. Information regarding a student's disability is considered confidential. Information will not be released to anyone without the express written permission of the student.

Reasonable Accommodations

- Accommodations are provided on an individual basis.
- Accommodations are provided to support the educational development of students with disabilities.
- In addition to the academic support services available to all Campbellsville University students, some examples of reasonable accommodations include extended time for tests, administration of oral tests, note-taking assistance, and use of assistive devices such as calculators or computers.

Students Right to Know and Campus Security Act

Campbellsville University complies with the Federal Student Right to Know and Campus Security Act.

Military Withdrawal Policy

This policy is established for Campbellsville University students who may be called to active military duty while a student. The University will assign the grade of W (withdrawal without penalty) for all classes not completed and refund 100% of student out-of-pocket payment for classes in which a grade of W is assigned during the first three-fourth of the semester. The student cost for room, board, and fees will be prorated. If 75% or more of the semester has been completed, the University will allow the student the choice of W's and follow the refund policy stated above or assign a grade of I (incomplete) and will allow the student to complete these courses within one year of deactivation.

PURPOSE STATEMENT

At Campbellsville University's Carver School of Social Work & Counseling, the program stresses academic excellence, Christian leadership, and personal growth within a nurturing, caring environment. The program expands the University mission in advancing students toward continued learning in all aspects of life with a special emphasis in the professional application of generalist social work practice. As a facilitator of change, the program prepares students to serve diverse communities, organizations, groups, families, and individuals, particularly in a rural environment, at all levels of social work practice.

PROGRAM DISSEMINATION

A team of doctoral faculty from four interrelated and complimentary disciplines provides instruction in the Masters of Counseling Program: Christian Studies, Psychology, Sociology, and Social Work. Campbellsville University employs four Psychology faculty, two Christian studies faculty, two Sociology faculty, and three Social Work faculty qualified to teach in the M.S.C. program:

M.S.C. PROGRAM ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS AND PROCEDURES, CURRICULA AND GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS

Unconditional Admission

- Applicants must complete and submit the University's graduate application form.
- Applicants must submit official transcripts of all college work from accredited institutions (both undergraduate and graduate) confirming a minimum overall grade point average (GPA) of 3.0 on a 4.0 scale.
- Applicants must have a GRE aptitude score of 850 [combined verbal and quantitative scores].
- Applicants must submit three recommendations using the standardized counseling program recommendation form as presented in the M.S.C. Program application packet.

Provisional Admission

Applicants not meeting all of the above prerequisites will be considered and acceptance will be considered as recommended by the Graduate Council. Students provisionally accepted will:

- *Have their course performance assessed regularly by their advisor who will report progress to the M.S.C. Graduate Committee.
- Maintain a 3.0 overall GPA or greater while in the graduate program.

*The M.S.C. Program Director will assign an advisor to students accepted into the program.

An appropriate graduate faculty or education tutor will be assigned by the Program Director if a grade lower than 3.0 is awarded in any graduate course and the need for specialized mentoring is encountered.

Admission Notification

Applicants will receive a written letter of acceptance once all admission requirements, including an interview with the M.S.C. Acceptance Committee, are met. The Graduate Council recommends full, provisional or non acceptance. Students not meeting admissions criteria will be notified in writing and recommendations for resubmission explicated.

THE MASTERS OF SCIENCE IN COUNSELING PROGRAM

The Master of Science in Counseling (M.S.C.) is designed on a foundation of generalist core counseling courses that lead to a master's degree in counseling. The coursework consists of a broad array of counseling courses for the purpose of enhancing career opportunities. In addition to the generalist core curriculum and the generalist counseling track, students may continue to pursue specialty tracks in marriage and family counseling and/or clinical counseling to academically prepare them to seek licensure in Kentucky and other states.

Applicants selected to pursue this degree may enter the program in any trimester or summer session as long as application materials have been received and approval granted by the M.S.C. Acceptance Committee. One-third of the M.S.C. core curriculum is taught in an online, web-assisted format. All of the counseling tracks are offered in the evening to accommodate the 25% non-traditional population from which Campbellsville University historically draws their students. Thus, each trimester the student participating in full-time study will enroll in one online course and two on-campus courses. Students desiring part-time study will seek consultation with their academic advisor to formulate an alternative academic plan.

Class sizes are relatively small (12-15 students on average). The faculty gives special attention to student and most usually they know every attendants name by the end of the first class. This M.S.C. program prides itself on relationships along with challenging and expanding student learning. As in the mission of Campbellsville University, this program works toward developing life-long Christian servant leaders who will contribute to the betterment of humanity.

Program Tracks

All three program tracks are built upon a 21 credit-hour core curriculum allowing students to choose from one of three tracks offered in the Master's of Science in Counseling Program: The Generalist Counseling track (36 credit hours), the Marriage and Family Counseling track (42 credit hours), or The Clinical Counseling track (60 credit hours). Two of the three tracks: Generalist and Marriage and Family are available at the main and Louisville Extension Campus's. The Clinical track is only available on the main campus located in Campbellsville, Kentucky.

Persons seeking the M.S.C. degree are advised about the benefits in each track offered in the Campbellsville University Counseling Program. The requirements of each track are explicated in a written pre-admission handbook and the M.S.C. Program Director will discuss with applicants, after approved for candidacy by the M.S.C. Acceptance Committee and the Graduate Council, the appropriate track to fulfill the candidate's interest. Once the appropriate concentration is selected, the Program Director will assign the candidate an academic advisor.

The preadmission handbook provides each prospective student a description of the M.S.C. degree, the benefits and limitations of each counseling track, the curricula requirements of each track, the requirements for acceptance in the graduate school, and the requirements for acceptance in the M.S.C. program. The M.S.C. degree does not require a thesis; however, the successful completion of a comprehensive examination is required prior to graduation.

Generalist Counseling

The Generalist Counseling track is a 36 credit-hour program. This degree is appealing to Human Service professionals, Christian Studies, Psychology, Sociology, Social Science, and Social Work undergraduates who have an interest in attaining a master's degree, but are not interested in seeking licensure credentials. The graduates with the generalist M.S.C. degree (36 credit hours of coursework) are qualified to provide career, academic, and other non-mental health counseling activities. The M.S.C. graduate, completing the generalist degree, is not qualified to establish a private practice or independently bill service consumers as a professional counselor in Kentucky or states having licensure laws that limit the use of this degree.

Two cognate (tracks) emphases are available to students who wish to pursue additional content in specific areas of counseling. Each track, as does the generalist counseling degree, requires additional coursework beyond the core curriculum. The cognate areas include Marriage and Family Counseling, and Clinical Counseling. Students seeking an area of emphasis will complete the 21 credit-hour generalist counseling core and the coursework specific to the area of emphases.

Marriage and Family Counseling

Students interested in marriage and family counseling may seek the respective Marriage and Family Counseling M.S.C. concentration. This track requires students to successfully complete an additional 21 credit hours of coursework beyond the generalist core curriculum. The additional curriculum includes coursework recommended by the Kentucky Board of Marriage and Family Therapy as outline in KRS 335.330(3). This area of study is designed to prepare graduates with the knowledge and skills to counsel individuals, couples, and families. Students successfully completing the Marriage and Family Counseling emphasis may seek certification as a Marriage and Family Therapist in the state of Kentucky once all prerequisite requirements (as outlined in KRS 335.300 to 335.399) of the Kentucky Board of Licensure of Marriage and Family Therapists have been fulfilled. The M.S.C. degree with an emphasis in Marriage and Family Counseling (MFC) requires students to successfully complete the generalist core (21 credit hours), the MFC core (15 credit hours of specified coursework), practicum (6 credit hours) and the comprehensive examination.

Clinical Counseling

Students interested in mental health and clinical counseling may pursue the Clinical Counseling track of emphasis. This track requires an additional 39 credit hours of coursework beyond the generalist core. The Clinical Counseling area provides coursework identified by the Kentucky Board of Licensed Professional Counselors (335.327 -- Licensing reciprocity requirements). The title of "Counselor" connotes a standard of professionalism that is regulated by the Commonwealth of Kentucky and various states throughout America. States that implement title protection do so in an attempt to protect consumers. Just as graduates with a Masters in Psychology cannot be referred to as Psychologists until a doctorate is attained, graduates with a counseling degree cannot be referred to as Counselors until licensure is attained. Students desiring a degree that prepares them to seek a license as a Counselor in the state of Kentucky must successfully complete the generalist core, successfully complete the coursework in the clinical counseling emphasis, successfully pass the comprehensive examination and practicum, and successfully fulfill the requirements of the Kentucky Board of Licensed Professional Counselors outlined in KRS 335.500 to 335.599.

The Masters in Counseling with an emphasis in Clinical Counseling requires the graduate to successfully complete the 21 credit-hour core and an additional 39 credit hours of coursework (60 total credit hours of coursework). The M.S.C. with an emphasis in clinical counseling is the more arduous of the two cognate areas offered by the Campbellsville University Counseling Program, but it fulfills a need for mental health professionals interested in either private or government practice.

CURRICULUM OF THE MASTER OF SCIENCE IN COUNSELING

The Master of Science in Counseling is a non-thesis degree that requires the successful completion of 21 core credit hours of coursework and the completion of one of three tracks for degree completion. In addition, all M.S.C. graduates must successfully complete a comprehensive examination consisting of core curricula content. Students are eligible to take the comprehensive exam once foundation coursework is satisfactorily completed. Student must pass the comprehensive examination before they participate in graduation activities. If the student does not successfully pass (70% or higher) the comprehensive examination in their first attempt, the student may retake an alternate exam of similar rigor and content after 15 days. Students will be allowed to take the comprehensive examination a total of three times before they are discharged from the M.S.C. program.

MASTER OF ARTS IN SOCIAL SCIENCE GOALS

The goal of the University's Master of Arts in Social Science is to provide a generalist degree designed to give candidates a broad content area to enhance career opportunities and the quality of instruction in community colleges and secondary schools. It melds the interests of four different disciplines in graduate preparation in the social sciences. As a teaching institution, Campbellsville University's mission of academic excellence and value-based, continued life-long learning in a Christian environment is well met. To fulfill that goal the objectives of the program are:

- To provide two broad areas of graduate concentrations for students seeking a generalist graduate degree for career advancement;
- To better prepare a candidate for admission to various professional schools;
- To provide adequate graduate preparation in a social science discipline or disciplines to meet Commission on College of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools requirements for teaching in community colleges;
- To concentrate cognate graduate preparation in social studies to broaden professional competence for teachers seeking Rank II certification for teaching social studies in secondary schools;
- To prepare graduate students and professional teachers to contribute to their businesses, students, schools and communities through continuing emphases on learning and service.

CAMPBELLSVILLE UNIVERSITY'S OTHER GRADUATE PROGRAMS

Campbellsville University offers undergraduate and graduate studies leading to a wide variety of baccalaureate and graduate degrees. Students in the Master of Arts in Social Science may enroll in any course offered for which the prerequisites stipulated for the course by the professor have been met. Graduate students who have not completed their 18 hours of prerequisite studies in their area of emphasis are encouraged to finish them as soon as possible. Master of Arts in Social Science students should consult their "graduate advisors" related to this process.

The University Bulletin/Catalog and the University's semester course offering schedules may be consulted for course listings in other academic areas, but of special interest may be graduate course offerings in the University's College of Arts and Sciences, School of Theology, School of Music, Carver School of Social Work, School of Education, and School of Business and Economics.

Undergraduate courses may be taken in an effort to broaden the student's academic base and may be taken as an audit or "for credit" class. Any 500 or 600 numbered courses may be taken as graduate electives studies by any student officially enrolled as a graduate student with the provision that the student meet prerequisite requirements for the course. Students may consult the current University Bulletin/Catalog for tuition and fees for such studies, but in general, tuition will be charged at the graduate course tuition rate.

FINANCIAL AID

Students who wish complete financial aid information related to all students in the University are advised to consult the current University Bulletin/Catalog and the University's Office of Financial Aid. Information related to student aid available specifically for candidates for the M.A. degree in Social Science is also available. Students are encouraged to write a letter of inquiry to UPO 1321 requesting application materials. An appropriate form will be sent in a timely manner to those making such an inquiry. The following two sources are available:

General Student Fund: Limited funds are available to Master of Arts in Social Science students who demonstrate financial need. Partial scholarship assistance on a semester-by-semester basis is available.

Graduate Assistantships: Two graduate assistant positions are available each fall semester for the entire school year. Application for available positions in the fall semester must be made at the end of each spring semester.

ADMISSION TO THE MASTER OF ARTS IN SOCIAL SCIENCE

Campbellsville University admits students of any race or gender to all the rights, privileges, programs, and activities generally accorded or made available to students, and the University does not discriminate illegally on the basis of race or gender in administration of its educational policies, admission policies, scholarship and loan programs, or other school administered programs.

Specific admissions criteria to the Graduate Program are the following:

Unconditional Admission

- Students must complete the University's application form and include a sample of their written work.
- If seeking Rank II Certification in Secondary Schools, the student must have a valid teacher's certificate or letter of eligibility in social studies.
- Students must submit official transcripts of all college work from accredited institutions (both undergraduate and graduate) confirming a minimum overall grade point average of 2.9 on a 4.0 scale.
- Students must have a GRE score of 1000 and a GPA of 2.9. Those with teacher certification and seeking Rank II teacher certification may substitute an equivalent score on the PRAXIS examination.
- Students must have two letters of recommendation from their undergraduate institution.
- Students should have an undergraduate major in a social science discipline or permission of the director of the program.

Conditional Admission

- Students not meeting all of the above prerequisites will be considered upon the recommendation of the Graduate Admissions Council.
- Students will have their course performance assessed regularly by their advisor.
- Provisional admission students must maintain a GPA of 3.0 or better while in the graduate program.
- Initially the division chairperson will be the student's advisor. The Social Science Graduate Committee will assign an appropriate graduate faculty member or education tutor.

REQUIREMENTS FOR THE MASTER OF ARTS IN SOCIAL SCIENCE

The Master of Arts in Social Science is a 36-hour, non-thesis program with two broad concentrations:

Community College Teaching and Generalist Concentration (Without Teacher Certification)

- Option 1 (36 hours)

The program consists of successfully completing 18 semester hours in two of the four disciplines of history, political science, psychology, or sociology.

The student must complete nine hours of 600 level courses in each of the two fields of emphases.

If emphasizing history, HST 500 Historiography and Research is required; if emphasizing political science, POL 520 Seminar in American Politics is required; if emphasizing psychology, the student must take PSY 601 Advanced General I and PSY 602 Advanced General Psychology II; if emphasizing sociology, SOC 510 Advanced General Sociology and SOC 610 Contemporary Sociological Theory are required.

The candidate must pass the comprehensive qualifying written examination in both areas of emphases.

- Option 2 (36 hours)

The program consists of successfully completing 18 semester hours in one discipline of history, political science, psychology, or sociology.

The student must complete nine semester hours of 600 level courses in the field of emphasis.

The student must complete nine semester hours each in two other social science disciplines listed above of which nine semester hours must be in 600 level courses. If emphasizing history, the student must take HST 500 Historiography and Research; if emphasizing political science, POL 520 Seminar in American Politics is required; if emphasizing psychology, PSY 601 Advanced General I and PSY 602 Advanced General Psychology II are required; if emphasizing sociology, SOC 510 Advanced General Sociology and SOC 610 Contemporary Sociological Theory are required.

The student must pass the comprehensive qualifying written examination in the major and minor areas of emphases.

General Degree Requirements (Both Options)

No more than three graduate hours of "C" grade will count toward degree completion; the candidate must have an overall 3.0 grade point average for graduation.

A maximum of twelve semester hours of graduate credit may be transferred from other accredited graduate institutions if those credits match the course requirements of the graduate program.

The candidate must complete the program within five years.

GOALS OF TESOL

The goal of the University's Master of Arts in Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages (TESOL) is to provide career opportunities for candidates both at home in the United States, and internationally. This program focuses both on preparing students to teach English as a Second Language (ESL) in the United States, and also English as a Foreign Language (EFL) in an international setting at elementary, secondary and university levels. Since Campbellsville University is a teaching institution, this program strengthens the current curriculum by providing an MA degree in TESOL as one of only nine other institutions of higher learning in the Commonwealth of Kentucky which offers, not necessarily an MA in TESOL, but some type of TESOL program. This program meets Campbellsville University's mission of academic excellence and value-based, continued life-long learning in a Christian environment.

PROGRAM OBJECTIVES

- to provide an understanding of basic concepts, scope and methodology of the science of language which includes candidates having a sociological, historical and philosophical perspective of the teaching of English as a second and foreign language.
- to better prepare a candidate for admission to various professional schools.
- to provide quality graduate preparation in the discipline of TESOL at the college level in the United States or internationally at the elementary, secondary and university level.
- to conduct research which will add to the knowledge of current practices and permit educators through reflection to make wise decisions concerning instruction so that they may make contributions to their businesses, students, schools and communities through continuing emphases on learning and service.

COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

TSL 500 Introduction to Linguistics 3 hours

This course is designed to introduce basic linguistic concepts and vocabulary. It examines what language is considered from a linguistic point of view. It also introduces the student to the methodology of the science of language.

TSL 660 Materials and Methods I:
Speaking, Listening and Pronunciation 3 hours

This course is designed to give students practical hand-on experience in developing materials for teaching speaking, listening and pronunciation to English speakers of other languages. An overview of current approaches, issues, and practices in the teaching of English to speakers of other languages will be given.

TSL 661 Materials and Methods II:
Reading, Writing and Grammar 3 hours

This course is designed to give students practical hand-on experience in developing materials for teaching reading, writing and grammar to English speakers of other languages. An overview of current approaches, issues, and practices in the teaching of English to speakers of other languages will be given.

TSL 640 Second Language Acquisition 3 hours

This course is designed to introduce issues, models and methods in second language acquisition (SLA) research. There will be an emphasis on the impact of the theories of second language acquisition on ESL/EFL pedagogy.

TSL 510 Language and Culture 3 hours

This course is designed to examine how culture and language are intertwined and influence each other. It will also look at how the culture we live in influences the culture of the language classroom. This course will also examine specifically how the Anglo culture is reflected in English grammar.

TSL 680 Modern English Grammar 3 hours

This course is designed to be an intensive study of the structure of modern English.

TSL 520 Linguistic Phonetics 3 hours

This course is designed to introduce the student to speech sounds and the linguistic methods employed in their description, classification and analysis as elements in language systems. The student will be trained in the use of the International Phonetic Alphabet.

TSL 670 Discourse Analysis 3 hours

This course is designed to give a detailed examination of the principal methods of analyzing written and oral discourse. The students will be introduced to relevance theory. This course also discusses coherence in discourse.

TSL 630 Contrastive Analysis 3 hours

This course is designed to examine language universals. Comparisons will be made of the structural systems of natural languages. Contrastive analysis and error analysis will be discussed as they apply to second language learning.

TSL 650 ESL/EFL Assessment

3 hours

In this course the student will examine fairness in language testing. Testing of native and non-native students will be discussed. The course also includes critiquing reading, writing, speaking and listening assessment rubrics.

TSL 690 TESL Practicum

3 hours

Practical experience related to the teaching of English as a second or foreign language. Permission of the ESL director is required.

TSL 691 Research Paper

3 hours

The student will work independently with guidance from a TESOL faculty member on the writing of their exit research paper. The student will write on a topic of their choosing concerning teaching English to speakers of other languages.

TSL 695 Thesis

6 hours

The student will be required to write under the guidance of a TESOL faculty member. The student will then defend the thesis before a panel of TESOL faculty and their peers.

MBA PROGRAM GOALS

The name of the program is the MBA Program and the degree to be awarded is the Master of Business Administration degree. The goal of the MBA Program is to prepare students for a leadership role in a rapidly changing global marketplace of constantly advancing technology. The MBA Program prepares students to be financially and socially responsible by integrating a thorough foundation in the basic functional areas of business with Christian values and an understanding of the role of technology in business decision-making.

Additional purposes of this program are:

- To assist and encourage the development of a high level of professional competence in the respective field of specialization.
- To encourage a broad range of scholarship within the field of specialization.
- To provide supportive courses that widen the range of professional competence beyond the respective field of specialization.
- To emphasize contemporary concepts of management practice.
- To prepare students to contribute to the advancements of their respective fields.

This degree is primarily intended for practicing professional persons who possess a bachelor's degree in business or a bachelor's or advanced degree in some other area of specialization and who feel the need for additional study in order to maximize and enhance their ability to contribute to their career, their company, and society. The degree will assist students who have a bachelor's degree to prepare for further study in doctoral programs.

ADMISSIONS REQUIREMENT FOR THE MBA

- A bachelor's degree with an acceptable grade point average (2.5 overall or 2.6 last 60 hours) from a regionally accredited four-year college or university.
- An acceptable score on the Graduate Management Admission Test (GMAT), or the Graduate Record Examination (GRE) taken within the last five years.
- An official transcript with the baccalaureate degree posted and mailed directly by the registrar from the college or university that granted the undergraduate degree must be sent to the Office of Graduate Admissions. Official transcripts must be submitted from all institutions that the student has received credit for work completed toward the undergraduate degree.
- A completed application for Admission form with a $25 check for the nonrefundable application fee made payable to Campbellsville University
- Two letters of reference must be sent to the Office of Graduate Admissions.
- For international applicants whose primary language is not English and who are not graduates of a college or university in the United States, an acceptable score (213) on computer or (550) on paper of the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) is required. An official certified independent evaluation by WES of work done at foreign institutions must be sent to the Office of Graduate Admissions prior to acceptance into the program.
- International students who do not hold a permanent resident visa in the United States must submit evidence of financial support before an I-20 form can be processed.
- A completed resume and an essay that includes a statement of professional goals must be sent to the School of Business and Economics.

The School of Business and Economics will inform the applicant of the status of the application, but it is the applicant's responsibility to be certain that all necessary documents are on file by published deadlines for admission. Under exceptional circumstances, students may be accepted to the program on a provisional basis and allowed to enroll for a maximum of six credit hours of coursework prior to full completion of the application file. A letter from the academic dean must confirm admission. A student will not be allowed to register for a second trimester or a second session until the application file is complete.

MBA PROGRAM FORMAT

The MBA program is available in two formats: weekend and online.

Weekend Format

In the weekend format, elective classes meet on Friday night and core classes meet on Saturday. Courses are offered on a trimester basis (three trimesters per school year). Six hours of coursework per trimester is considered a full load. Each trimester is nine weeks long. Special permission is required to register for more than six hours per trimester.

Weekend Rotating Class Schedule

Trimester 1-Mid September to Mid November

BA 611 Organization Theory
BA 614 Human Resource Management
BA 616 Business Ethics
Elective

Trimester 2-Mid January to Mid March

BA 601 Marketing Management
BA 620 Managerial Finance
ECO 610 Managerial Economics
Elective

Trimester 3-Late March to Late May

ACC 601 Managerial Accounting
BA 602 Management Information Systems
BA 690 Business Strategy
Elective

Online Format

The online MBA courses are offered in six academic sessions throughout the year. Each session is eight weeks long. The online program runs all year (including the summer). Three hours of coursework per session is considered a full load. Students may take up to two courses without special permission. The curriculum for the online program is identical to that of the weekend program. Courses are scheduled as follows.

Grad Session 1: Early July through early September
Grad Session 2: Early September through late October
Grad Session 3: Late October through late December
Grad Session 4: Early January through early March
Grad Session 5: Early March through late April
Grad Session 6: Late April through late June

STANDARDS AND EVALUATION ACHIEVEMENT

Each course in the MBA program has its own method for evaluating student performance. The particular methods of assessment will be explained to students and included in the written syllabus for the course at the beginning of each course. A student must maintain a cumulative grade point average of 3.0 throughout the program. All course grades assigned in the program are entered on the student's official transcript and counted toward the cumulative grade point average. A student who earns a grade lower than C will be subject to academic dismissal. A student who earns more than two grades of C or lower will be subject to academic dismissal. A student may repeat a course in which a grade of C was earned; however, a course may be repeated only once. In cases where a course was repeated, both grades remain on the transcript, but only the last grade will count toward the grade point average. Student academic transcripts are reviewed at the end of each trimester or session of work. A student who fails to maintain a cumulative grade point average of 3.0 will be placed on academic probation and will have one academic trimester or session to remove the probationary status or be dismissed from the program. A student will have six years from the date of entry into the program in which to complete all of the requirements for graduation.

DEGREE APPLICATION

All candidates for graduation must complete an Application for Graduation in accordance with a schedule distributed by the Office of Student Records at the beginning of the fall trimester or session of the school year in which the degree work is to be completed.

TRANSFER OF GRADUATE CREDIT

Upon approval of the dean, a maximum of two courses representing six credit hours of graduate course work may be accepted from another regionally accredited institution. Courses to be transferred in must have been taken within the past five years and only courses in which grades of B or higher were earned will be accepted for transfer. Transfer courses are shown on the transcript as "credit" only and are not counted in computing the cumulative grade point average.

Students seeking to transfer course work must submit a written request along with transcripts, university course catalog descriptions, and other course information such as a syllabus or book list to the School of Business and Economics for faculty use in establishing course equivalency.

FOUNDATIONAL REQUIREMENTS FOR THE MBA

All applicants who have not completed undergraduate courses in any one or all of the following areas: Accounting, Finance, Economics, and/or Statistics, are to take undergraduate courses in these areas as prerequisites or take subject MBA Primer pretests BEFORE admission to the program. The MBA Primer pretests are free of charge and may be taken only one time. If students do not score 70% or higher on the pretests, they must purchase the corresponding preparatory modules. After completion of the modules, students must score 70% or higher on the post-tests to satisfy the prerequisite requirements.

The MBA Primer includes individual courses and a comprehensive course which includes all of the courses combined. Students may take as much time as necessary to be successful in the MBA Primer courses. Expect to spend between 20 and 30 hours total on the four modules and post-tests. Individual study time will vary. The entire course is web based. There is no textbook involved. The pretest or post-test scores will not appear on a student's transcript at Campbellsville University. Students will not be admitted to the program until all prerequisite requirements have been met.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS FOR THE MBA

In addition to listed criteria for admission to the MBA program, a student must demonstrate the knowledge, skills, and experience necessary to compete successfully in an MBA program. Students possessing a bachelor's degree in business administration and at least two years of work experience will be considered to possess the necessary knowledge, skills, and experience to compete successfully in the MBA program. For students who do not possess a bachelor's degree in business administration, it may be necessary for the student to acquire background knowledge in selected business areas before enrolling in specific courses. See Foundational Requirements for the MBA.

Students will take 36 hours of 600 level coursework to complete the MBA. A student will take a total of 27 hours of core course work (each course is a three credit hour course) and 9 hours of electives. In lieu of the 9 hours of electives in the online format only, students can complete a specific track of 9 hours in one of four areas: Healthcare Management, Human Resource Management, International Business, and Marketing.

SCHOOL OF EDUCATION MISSION AND GOALS

The mission of the School of Education of Campbellsville University is to prepare teachers for their respective fields by providing an academic infrastructure based on scholarship, service, and Christian leadership. The primary goal of the program is to advance scholars who are competent, caring and qualified, who can positively impact student learning, and who are committed to life-long learning in a global society.

The goals for achieving the mission of the School of Education are:

- Provide a comprehensive program in curriculum and instruction for graduate students.
- Emphasize the development of the cadre of master teachers in the contiguous area of the Commonwealth;
- Follow the expectations and specifications outlined by KERA and best practices;
- Provide the opportunity for teachers leading toward advanced certification, specifically Rank II certification.
- Reflect the character-based, moral and ethical based, faith-based component of one's personal life and professional integrity.

FINANCIAL AID

Students who wish to complete financial aid information are advised to consult the current University Bulletin/Catalog and the University's Office of Financial Aid. Information related to student aid available specifically for candidates for the MAE and MASE degrees in the School of Education is also available. The following source of scholarship opportunities are:

- William K. Pennebaker Graduate Scholarship. Limited funds are available to School of Education students who demonstrate financial need. Partial scholarship assistance on a semester-by-semester basis is available. Further information is available through the Dean's office.
- TRAC Tuition Assistance. Limited funds are available to eligible students admitted to the Master of Arts in Special Education program. Further information is available through the Office of Financial Aid.

TITLE II REPORTING REQUIREMENTS

In compliance with the requirements under federal law, Campbellsville University provides annual disclosure of the reporting requirements under Title II. These requirements report the PRAXIS II pass rate percentage of cohort students completing the undergraduate Teacher Education Program. The 2005-06 Title II pass rate was 91%.

EDUCATION GRADUATE PROGRAMS

The Commonwealth of Kentucky is continuing an exciting era in its educational history, building on the implementation of the Kentucky Education Reform Act of 1990 (KERA). Since the enactment of KERA, the teacher education community of the Commonwealth has been encouraged to develop relevant standards-driven programs for the continued preparation of teachers. The challenge this poses for Campbellsville University is to accommodate and provide continuing services and programs that address the needs of the schools of the 21st century. To meet that challenge, the University offers two post-baccalaureate programs:

- Master of Arts in Education (M.A.E.) program leading to areas of specialization in curriculum and instruction
- Master of Arts in Special Education (M.A.S.E.) program leading to P-12 Learning Behavior Disorder (LBD) certification.

The graduate education program implements a Continuous Assessment Plan (CAP) that monitors student progress throughout the program. The Plan consists of three checkpoints along the continuum of the program:

- (a) CAP 5: admission into the program
- (b) CAP 6: mid-point check
- (c) CAP 7: program completion/exit

Students must successfully meet the criteria at each checkpoint. A student will not be permitted to progress in the program if the criteria are not met. The CAP system will be explained in detail in the appropriate education courses.

No more than 12 semester hours of graduate credit may be transferred from other accredited graduate institutions if those credits match the course requirements of the graduate program. Approval of transfer credits will result from an examination of the transfer request (accompanied by appropriate documentation) by the Dean or his/her designee. Transfer classes must be full term or equivalent classes. Workshops will not be accepted for graduate classes. While these may be valuable to the graduate student, a collection of one and two hour workshops is not acceptable in the education graduate program. When entering the graduate education program, a commitment is made to the completion of the design of the program. A student may appeal a request to the Dean and Graduate Council in cases where the student believes just grounds exist.

ADMISSION TO THE EDUCATION GRADUATE PROGRAM (CAP 5)

The following are specific requirements for admission to the Education Graduate Program (M.A.E. or M.A.S.E.):

- Completion of the Graduate School application form;
- Possession of a valid teacher's certification or letter of eligibility; bachelor's degree only for initial certification
- Submission of scores on the PRAXIS exams or equivalent. Results from the GRE may be considered in lieu of the PRAXIS;
- Receipt of three (3) letters of recommendation including one from a school administrator (employer, if seeking initial certification), one from a colleague, and one from a person endorsing the character of the applicant;
- Receipt of official transcripts of all University work from accredited institutions (both undergraduate and graduate) confirming a minimum overall grade point average of 2.75 on a

MASTER OF ARTS IN EDUCATION

DEGREE DESIGN

The Master's program is a 30-semester hour sequence, 18-month program with 18 hours in professional education courses in curriculum and instruction and 12 hours in selected cognate areas. The overall structure of the M.A.E. program provides primary, middle and secondary schools teachers the experience of designing an action-research project that will be implemented in their own classrooms. The project is based on a concern/interest the teachers have identified for further study and formal research.

Course work is content specific toward providing comprehensive understanding of curriculum theory and designs linking theory to practice. Furthermore, emphasis is given to the development of skills, concepts, and understanding in producing master teachers and mentors to student teachers and first year interns. The core education courses are as follows.

COURSE LIST

ED 610 Curriculum Theory

3 hours

Emphasizing the curriculum principles, the philosophical, historical, and social trend of curriculum, the determinants of curriculum, and the development of the rationale for the implementation of a school-based action project. This course is taken during the first year, fall trimester.

ED 615 A & B Practicum in Human Development

1.5 hours each

Emphasizing practical implementation of theory and design in the classroom, this experience is taken over the entire academic year of the program. Also emphasized is application of the latest theories in the development and learning of children. The classroom for these experiences is the classroom of the graduate student. These experiences are accompanied by attendance at a series of Saturday or evening workshops and seminars. This practicum is required for all graduate students during their first year. ED

620 Curriculum Design

3 hours

Emphasizing the overall components of curriculum development, design, implementation, and evaluation and continuing assistance to the individual with his/her school-based action project with particular attention to reporting results. This course is taken in the spring trimester.

ED 625 A & B Practicum in Instruction

1.5 hours each

Emphasizing practical implementation of curricular design and instruction theory in the classroom setting. Attendance at selected Saturday or evening workshops on topics relevant to instruction is required. This course is taken during the second academic year of the program by those holding middle school and/or secondary certification.

ED 630 Research Methods

3 hours

Emphasizing both qualitative and quantitative methodology, reflective practice, competency development, formative and summative assessment with special attention to the rationale and methodology action research project. This course is taken in the winter trimester.

ED 635 A & B Practicum in the Teaching of Reading

1.5 hours each

Emphasizing the practices and trend in the teaching of reading. This seminar is taken during the second academic year of the student's program, by those holding standard certification at the P-5 level. Seminars meet on selected Saturdays or evenings during the academic year.

ED 640 Supervision of Instruction3 hours

Emphasizing the development of knowledge skills in supervision student teachers, intern and other teachers, and understanding the importance of leadership therein. Special emphasis is given to assist student teachers and first year interns toward success. Emphasis is placed on Chapter 5 of the Master's Action Research project. This course is taken during the second year, spring trimester.

One additional course is available, as needed, ED 680, Special Topics. It must be approved by the Dean and endorsed by the education graduate faculty. The student must have a 3.0 GPA in graduate work. Course credit is variable, up to six hours.

ED 610, 620, 630, and 640 are generally taught in the evening hours (6:00-9:00 p.m.) on Tuesdays. Practicums are taught on selected Saturday mornings or designated evenings to accommodate graduate students who teach in full-time positions. One of the strengths of the program is to relate theory to instructional behavior as it is being practiced in the classroom of graduate students.

M.A.E. PROGRAM MODEL

The following model summarizes the total 30-hour graduate program (18 graduate hours, education; 12 graduate hours, cognate area) and shows the relationship of the core professional education courses to the Master's Action Research Project.

I. Education Core Courses – 13.5 hours		Action Research Project
1 st Trimester (Fall)	ED 610 Curriculum Theory (3 hrs.) ED 615A Practicum in Human Development (1.5 hrs.)	Chapter 2 Literature Review
2 nd Trimester (Winter)	ED 630 Research Methods (3 hrs.) ED 615B Practicum in Human Development (1.5 hrs.)	Chapters 1 & 3 Introduction Methodology
3 rd Trimester (Spring)	ED 620 Curriculum Design (3 hrs.) ED 635A (P-5) or ED 625A (5-9,8-12) (1.5 hrs.)	Chapters 1,2,&3
II. Cognate Classes – 12 hours
Summer (6 hours) Fall Trimester (3 hours) Winter Trimester (3 hours)
III. Education Core Courses – 4.5 hours
Spring Trimester	Ed 640 Supervision of Instruction (3 hrs.) ED 635B (P-5) or ED 625A (5-9,8-12) (1.5 hrs.)	Chapters 4&5 Results and Conclusions

COGNATE AREA COURSE LIST

Graduate courses in selected cognate areas are taken during the summer months and are intended to strengthen the graduates' abilities and knowledge in the appropriate specific academic domain. Following is a list of recommended content area courses:

- Language Arts, P-5. Twelve hours of course-work are required for the graduate student who is currently teaching at the P-5 level of certification. The program includes courses on the following:
 - ED 600 Trends and Issues in Reading/Language Arts
 - ED 601 Relationships Between Writing and Reading
 - ED 602 Diagnosis of Reading Problems
 - ED 603 Directed Study in Language Arts
- Biology, 8-12. These courses are designed for graduate students having academic emphases in science and/or biology for middle and secondary certification levels. The program includes the following courses:
 - BIO 501 Topics in Freshwater Biology: Limnology
 - BIO 502 Natural History of Vertebrates
 - BIO 503 Topic in Human Ecology
 - BIO 504 Plant Taxonomy and Local Flora
 - BIO 590 Research
- Chemistry, 8-12. These courses are designed for graduate students having academic emphases in science and/or chemistry and are appropriate for middle and secondary certification levels. The program includes the following courses:
 - CHE 500 Topics in Modern Chemistry
 - CHE 501 Topics in Inorganic Chemistry
 - CHE 502 Topics in Organic Chemistry
 - CHE 503 Topics in Analytical Chemistry
- English, 8-12. These courses are designed for graduate students possessing academic emphases in English/communications and are appropriate for middle and secondary certification levels. Courses include the following:
 - ENG 501 Literary Criticism
 - ENG 502 Casebook Studies of Selected Classics
 - ENG 503 The Romantic Period
 - ENG 504 Victorian Literature
 - ENG 505 Rhetorical Traditions and Composition
 - ENG 506 Recent Trends in Composition Studies
 - ENG 507 Modernism in American Literature and Criticism
 - ENG 508 Postmodernism in American Literature and Criticism
 - ENG 511 Classical Rhetoric for Contemporary Composition

ENG 512 Contemporary Theories of Writing
ENG 591 Shakespeare in Performance and Interpretation

- Mathematics, 8-12. These courses are designed for graduate students with academic emphases in mathematical studies. The program is applicable for middle and secondary certification levels and include the following:

MTH 500 Microcomputer Applications for Mathematics
MTH 501 Topics in Number Theory
MTH 502 Topics from Geometry
MTH 505 Mathematical Modeling and Applications

- Physical Education and Health, P-12. These courses are designed for graduate students with certification in physical education and/or health. Courses include the following:

HPE 550 Current Trends and Practices in Physical Education
HPE 560 Current Trends and Practices in Health Education
HPE 570 The Physiological Basis of Health, P.E. and Athletics
HPE 575 Conditioning and Rehabilitation for Games, Sports,
Physical Activity
HPE 580 The Psycho/Social Aspects of Sport and Physical Activity

- Social Studies 8-12. These courses are designed for graduate students with academics emphases in the fields of social studies, including history and political science and with middle and/or secondary certification. Courses include the following:

HST 502 Colonial America
HST 575 Civil War and Reconstruction
PSY 512 Cognitive Psychology
PSY 601 Advanced General Psychology 601
POL 501 Political Theory
POL 555 Political Geography

Courses other than the cognate courses above may be substituted providing they are graduate level courses specifically related to one's certification area and approved by the Dean.

COGNATE AREA COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

Language Arts, P-5

ED 600 Trends and Issues in Reading/Language Arts 3 hours

This course focuses on theories, research, and methodology associated with reading and language arts from primary through the fifth grade, with attention to the concepts of whole language, phonemic awareness, and emergent literacy.

ED 601 Relationships Between Writing and Reading 3 hours

This course emphasizes current thought and research in the fields of reading and writing that mutually support the nature of the interrelationships between the two processes. Special attention is given to emergent literacy.

ED 602 Diagnosis of Reading Problems3 hours

This course examines the use and critique of theories of the reading process and diagnostic approaches for assisting in the improvement of reading proficiency. Emphasis is placed on the use of holistic assessment technologies and their relationships to theories of reading processes.

ED 603 Directed Study in Language Arts3 hours

This course requires the graduate student to select a topic in language arts, study the research and literature related to the topic, consider the implications of findings for instruction in the classroom, and present a paper to a panel of peers for critique.

Biology, 8-12BIO 501 Topics in Freshwater Biology: Limnology*3 hours*BIO 502 Natural History of Vertebrates*3 hours*BIO 503 Topic in Human Ecology*3 hours

The course will cover aspects of human ecology such as population dynamics, environmental problems of pollution and resource depletion, energy sources and policy, endangered species, habitat destruction, and urban growth.

BIO 504 Plant Taxonomy and Local Flora3 hours

The course will cover various aspects of plant taxonomy and the local flora of central Kentucky.

BIO 590 Researchvariable credit to 6 hours

This course emphasizes student-conducted research with the guidance of a faculty sponsor. The topic of research and the research methods are determined in consultation with the sponsoring faculty member. Results are presented orally in a public seminar and in a comprehensive written report. Offer on demand.

Chemistry, 8-12CHE 500 Topics in Modern Chemistry*3 hours

This course is a review and extension of the principles and topics studied in introductory chemistry. The course will cover topics such as the mathematics of chemistry, molecular dimensions, the structure of atoms and molecules, equations and the gas laws. Prerequisite: two years of undergraduate chemistry.

CHE 501 Topics in Inorganic Chemistry3 hours

This course treats the basic concepts of inorganic chemistry and how these concepts are used to understand and predict the chemical and physical properties of compounds other than carbon. Special emphasis is placed on the chemical and physical properties of compounds of the transition elements.

CHE 502 Topics in Organic Chemistry3 hours

This course treats both the classical and instrumental methods used in the study of organic compounds. Emphasis will be placed on the reactions of the main functional groups of organic molecules, stereochemistry, and on the interpretation of mass, infrared, ultraviolet, and nuclear magnet resonance spectra.

This course is a study of classical and modern instrumental analytical techniques. Topics studied will include both volumetric and gravimetric analysis and the theories associated with these techniques. Special emphasis will be placed on modern instrumental techniques including gas chromatography, ultraviolet, and visible techniques.

This course examines recent and current criticism to discover its basic assumptions and implications, beginning with formalism and structuralism.

This course integrates literature and literary criticism into a casebook approach. The study of specific works and contemporary criticism and the peer writing of a casebook for a specific literary work will demonstrate the process of reading, critical analysis and interpretation, writing, and understanding.

This course is a study of Romantic Literature beginning in 1798 and continuing through 1832. The course will stress a thorough examination of major writers of poetry, the prose essay, literary critical essay, and the novel of the period.

This course is a study of Victorian Literature beginning in 1832 and continuing to 1900. The course will be a careful examination of major writers of poetry, the prose essay, literary essay, and the novel of the period.

ENGL 305 Rhetorical Traditions and Composition 3 hours
This course examines the Rhetorical Theories and traditions that underlie the teaching of composition. It will focus particularly on American rhetorical heritage and its influence on the way rhetorical theory shapes curriculum, textbooks, and teaching theory practice.

This course examines recent developments in discourse theory, cognitive studies, collaborative learning, assessment, and artificial intelligence research that are changing the way composition is taught. Intended as an introduction to these fields, the course will introduce students to the leading theorists in these fields through their writings in texts and journals.

ENG 507 Modernism in American Literature and Criticism 3 hours
An investigation of American modernism as represented by selected works of American criticism, fiction, poetry, and drama, with emphasis on three questions: What is modernism? What are its origins? What are its manifestations in literature and life?

An investigation of American postmodernism and its various manifestations in selected works of American literature and criticism.

This course consists of a brief historical survey of ancient rhetoric, intensive study of the rhetorical theories of Aristotle and Cicero, and practice in writing an analysis involving applications of classical theory with special attention to proofs, structures and style.

ENG 512 Contemporary Theories of Writing 3 hours

This course consists of the study and practical application of recently advanced theories affecting academic and professional writing and the teaching of writing in America. The scope of study includes, but is not limited to, theories advocated by current traditionalists, expressivists, cognitivists, social constructivists, and neo-Marxists; it also includes eclectism and classical rhetoric in contemporary theory. The focus of study foregrounds the basic assumptions, major tenets, logical implications, and probably practical results of each theoretical perspective.

ENG 591 Shakespeare in Performance and Interpretation 3 hours

A study of selected Shakespearian plays in light of performance, focusing on interpretation, staging, and problems/options.

Mathematics, 8-12

MTH 500 Microcomputer Applications for Mathematics 3 hours

The microcomputer will be used for an in-depth study of the solutions to various mathematical problems. A number of areas in calculus, statistics, simulation, linear programming, and linear algebra will be investigated from the applied aspect.

MTH 501 Topics in Number Theory 3 hours

Topics in this course include congruencies, conditional congruencies, finite and infinite simple continued fractions. Algebraic and transcendental numbers, sum of squares, recurring sequences, and cryptography. Prerequisite: MTH 305 or consent of instructor.

MTH 502 Topics from Geometry 3 hours

Topics include constructions and study of polygons, polyhedra and polytopes and their symmetric groups, transformations, convexity, duality, regular and semi-regular tilings of the plane, and geometry in architecture, art, biology, chemistry, and crystallography. Prerequisite: MTH 402 or consent of the instructor.

MTH 505 Mathematical Modeling and Applications 3 hours

Mathematical concepts and techniques from earlier courses are used in modeling real-life problems to bring new vividness and interest to ideas. Numerous problems are confronted from the physical, biological, social, and behavioral sciences. The use of computer is encouraged. Prerequisite: calculus and some computer science.

Physical Education and Health, P-12

HPE 550 Current Trends and Practices in Physical Education 3 hours

Course emphasizes current trends and practices in physical education. The course will review KERA as it relates to the implementation of Practical Living Core Concepts in Kentucky. Recently adopted NASPE benchmarks will also be stressed.

HPE 560 Current Trends and Practices in Health Education 3 hours

This course will identify illness and disease in school-age children and adolescents and stress the prevention or reduction of disease through avoidance of risk factors and modification of lifestyle. Implications for school programs will be addressed.

HPE 570 The Physiological Basis of Health, Physical Education, and Athletics 3 hours

This course will challenge students to learn the scientific and physiological reasons for training and conditioning. Students will be able to explore current concepts and practices in their environment and improve the effectiveness of safety of school-based health, physical education and athletic programs.

HPE 575 Conditioning and Rehabilitation for Games, Sports
and Physical Activity 3 hours

This course will present an overview of techniques for conditioning and rehabilitation of participants in sport and physical activity. Topics include the components of physical fitness, conditioning methods, sport specific conditioning, nutrition, prehabilitation, rehabilitation guidelines, and rehabilitation of specific injuries.

HPE 580 The Psycho/Social Aspects of Sport and Physical Activity 3 hours

This course will provide student with a comprehensive and insightful analysis of contemporary issues in sport and physical activity. Psycho/social issues in sport and physical activity will be examined from historical, cross-cultural, and psychological perspectives.

Social Studies, 8-12

HST 502 Colonial America 3 hours

This course will examine American development from the Age of Discovery to the Early National Period. Emphasis will be placed on understanding the basic factors in the economic, social, and political development of the colonies.

HST 575 Civil War and Reconstruction 3 hours

This course examines the development of sectionalism in the antebellum period, the secession crisis, and mobilization for war, its strategy and tactics. The course examines the military, political, and diplomatic courses of the war. The reconstruction period and its impact are also discussed.

POL 501 Political Theory 3 hours

This course focuses on the major theoretical approach in analyzing democratic theory, including procedural and substantive views, as well as majoritarian and pluralistic theory. Different views on democratic government will be examined, and emphasis will be placed on how decision-making takes place.

POL 555 Political Geography of Environment & Resources 3 hours

This course examines the relationship that exists between the process of political decision making by national governments and the world environment. The interactions between resource management and international decision making will be studied so as to help students to understand the current issues and crises in the global arena that are likely to have the greatest impact on the future.

PSY 512 Cognitive Psychology 3 hours

Contemporary approaches to cognitive psychology. A broad survey, with in-depth looks at selected topics including attention and memory.

PSY 601 Advanced General Psychology I 3 hours

An examination of the basic concepts, theories, research methods, and findings of specialty areas in experimental psychology. Topics will include biological bases of behavior, the nervous system, sensory processes, perception, learning, and cognition. Required for emphasis in psychology.

MASTER OF ARTS IN SPECIAL EDUCATION (M.A.S.E.)

DEGREE DESIGN

The Master of Arts in Special Education (M.A.S.E.) program is a rigorous preparation program consisting of 12 blended, online classes offered in 10-week sessions. Candidates take two classes per 10-week session. It is an alternative certification program that is designed for initial certification (P-12, Learning Behavior Disorders, LBD) or for an extension of the teaching certificate. The program can be completed in approximately 18 months.

This program provides students with opportunities to participate in field experiences, engage in professional collaboration through online course sessions and to meet one another face-to-face through video-conferencing seminars. Emphasis is placed on in-depth strategies for educating Learning Behavior Disorder students. The program begins with an introduction to areas of exceptionalities and case law.

COURSE LIST

SED 503 Introduction to Special Education 3 Hours

This course will provide information and knowledge regarding models, theorists, and philosophies that form the basis of special education. The family systems and the role of families in the education process will be studied with specific emphasis on culturally diverse groups. Issues related to due process will be addressed within a continuum of services. A primary research project will be conducted regarding the variations in beliefs and values across cultures and their effects on relationships among individuals with exceptional learning needs.

SED 504 Emotional Disturbance and Behavioral Disorders 3 Hours

This course will enable master teachers to understand interconnections between biological, cognitive, social, and emotional dimensions of emotional and behavioral disorders. The interplay of race, gender, social class, and ethnicity with factors of family structure, peer relationships, and school experiences will be researched and reported through oral and written presentations.

SED 505	Curriculum and Methods in Learning & Behavior Disorders P-12	3 Hours
----------------	---	----------------

This course is designed to provide opportunities for investigating research-based best practices exploring the advantages and limitations of instructional strategies and practices for teaching individuals with emotional/behavioral disorders. Candidates will examine how technology, media, resources, and materials may be used to maximize teaching effectiveness in the classroom. Major focuses are given to the area of constructing unit lessons, lesson presentations, and evaluation of student progress. Candidates are expected to develop lesson plans that accommodate the needs of learners with disabilities and that provide differentiated learning experiences. Designing instructional strategies for diversity in culture and in learning styles, adapting commercial and teacher-made materials, assessing learner progress, and using technology to enhance instruction are studies in-depth. Primary graduate study will address the resources and techniques used to transition individuals with emotional/behavioral disorders into and out of school and post-school environments.

SED 506 Behavior Management of Children & Youth with Learning and Behavior Problems 3 Hours

This course is designed to provide students with knowledge and understanding of behavioral assessment and intervention strategies that have been effective for individuals with emotional/behavioral disorders across the age range. Students will learn to (a) identify and assess problem behavior, (b) design and implement behavioral interventions, (c) design learning environments that will prevent problem behaviors, and (d) apply behavioral procedures in educational settings. Primary research project will address the collaborative and consultative roles of the special education teacher in the reintegration of individuals with emotional/behavioral disorders.

SED 600 Theories of Reading and Educational Practices P-12 3 Hours

This course will concentrate on the best practices for teaching reading to students with learning and behavioral difficulties. Candidates will conduct research on literacy problems in the United States and examine reading approaches for students with reading difficulties. Understanding of best practice strategies for teaching of reading will be applied through a research paper project.

SED 601 Prescriptive and Instructional Methods 3 Hours

This course will explore strategies for teaching skills and content areas, such as reading, mathematics, social studies, oral and written language, and study skills to students with learning and behavioral disorders. The course will provide instruction in designing goals and objectives anchored in both general and special curricula. Primary graduate project will reflect candidates understanding of instructional planning in a collaborative context including individuals with exceptionalities, families, professional colleagues, and personnel from other agencies. This course will require a 10-hour field experience component.

SED 602 Classroom Management 3 Hours

This course will assist the candidate teachers in developing research-based strategies for creating and managing a classroom environment that maximizes student learning and prevents potential problems. Topics for in-depth study include: effective schools research; teacher behavior and management techniques; discipline theories; conferencing and referrals; observation, reporting, and communication skills. Candidates will observe, record, and analyze both teacher and student behaviors as they relate to the instructional program and learning environment during the required 10 Field/Service Learning Hours. An action research paper will require the candidate to exam classroom management models.

SED 603 Teaching Mathematics to Children & Youth with LBD 3 Hours

The primary focus of this course is an in-depth examination of the teaching of mathematics to children with learning and behavioral disorders. The overall contexts in which these researched-based best practices are considered are the national curricular reforms in mathematics. Clearly, this course primarily attends to domains of pedagogy, and its relationship to subject matter, curriculum, and pedagogical content knowledge. Specific attention is provided in this course to the teaching that responds to the reform recommendations identified by National Council of Teachers of Mathematics (NCTM). Candidates will demonstrate their understanding of best practice mathematics instruction through a case-study project.

SED 604 Assessment and Instructional Methods 3 Hours

This course will provide participants with an understanding and informed use of assessment data. It focuses on policies and procedures involved in the screening, diagnosis, and placement of individuals with emotional/behavioral disorders including academic and social behaviors. The primary research project will involve the assessment of appropriate and problematic social behaviors of individuals with EBD.

SED 605 Research Methods and Procedures 3 Hours

This course provides an overview of the research processes, with emphasis on finding, using, and evaluating social research. The course has embedded within the weekly lessons PowerPoint presentations for further explanation of key concepts and terms. Further, each week's lesson/class concludes with a website to be explored and learn the key concepts. Students will learn the tools for qualitative and quantitative research. A research paper of at least 50 pages is required on a topic selected from a list provided by the professor.

SED 606 Introduction to Learning Disabilities 3 Hours

This course will provide information focusing on the identification, instruction, and assessment of individuals with specific learning disabilities and learning differences. Special emphasis will be placed on the etiologies of learning disabilities and the medical factors that may impact the learning of individuals with learning disabilities. Participants will learn the psychological, social, and emotional characteristics of individuals with learning disabilities. A primary research project explores the impact learning disabilities may have on auditory processing skills and phonological awareness as they relate to individual reading abilities.

SED 607 Graduate Practicum/Seminar 3 Hours

This course provides an opportunity for students to apply best instructional practice in a field base setting with cognitive coaching with a critical friend and their cohort of peers in the seminar. This will provide opportunity to translate theory learned into practice.

For those non-traditional students who have degrees but no teaching certificates, an additional course is required, SED 502.

SED 502 Foundation Courses: Design for Teaching 12 Hours

This course experience is designed to familiarize the candidate with the broad field of education. Emphasis is given the historical, philosophical, and social foundations of education through research activities. In-depth study of developmental and learning theories will be conducted. In addition, candidates will demonstrate proficiency in instructional technology applications in the classroom. This block will include lecture, in-class presentations, role-playing, case studies, video analysis, guest speakers, cooperative learning tasks, and a variety of writing activities.

SED 608 Student Teaching 12 Hours

Student teachers spend twelve weeks in a primary, middle, or high school classroom setting. They will have opportunity to translate theory learned in professional studies into practice while teaching in their areas of certification and under the guidelines of a cooperating teaching and University supervisor.

SCHOOL OF MUSIC MISSION STATEMENT

The School of Music of Campbellsville University serves as an instrument of the University in the direction of music training and the stimulation of creative and professional work in music. The School of Music provides music study within the mission and goals of the University.

The School of Music attempts to broaden the education of every student in the University by providing a broad range of experiences in music; by offering class instruction which seeks to develop an understanding of music as a communicative art, its place in life, and its value to the individual; and by offering specialized training in musical skills.

The School of Music encourages the development of students who wish to prepare for careers as professional performers, teachers, or church musicians by providing competency-based courses which lay a technical and broad cultural foundation and which equip music students in their particular fields of interest and endeavor.

The School of Music guides students in the attainment of academic, spiritual, vocational, cultural, and social values through professional training, musicianship, and the liberal arts concept.

The School of Music provides educational and cultural resources to the University, community, and regional constituencies through concerts, workshops, adjudication, research, creative activity, and other professional services; while working cooperatively with the regional constituencies to enhance learning opportunities for students.

GRADUATE DEGREES OFFERED BY SCHOOL OF MUSIC

The Graduate Program of the School of Music seeks to develop professional competence and productive scholarship in its students. The program of study is designed to lead to a broad acquaintance with historical and contemporary states of learning and prepare students to contribute to the advancement of their respective fields.

All graduate degree programs have been approved by the National Association of Schools of Music, the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools, the Council on Post-Secondary Education, and the Kentucky Department of Education.

Master of Arts in Music

The Master of Arts in Music degree is designed to provide graduate instruction in a broad range of musical study for students without specialization. The program requires study in five core areas to provide a breadth of competence in musical skills and understanding. This program is intended primarily for students seeking advanced study in preparation for careers spanning different disciplines within the music profession or preparation for continued education beyond the master's level.

Master of Music in Music Education

The Master of Music in Music Education degree is primarily intended for certified music educators having a Rank III teaching certificate, who are required, if teaching in the State of Kentucky, to attain the Master's level (Rank II) certification within ten years after completion of the bachelor's degree. The degree can also assist non-certified musicians who have a bachelor's degree to prepare for further studies in doctoral programs and for college-level teaching. This degree does not certify individuals for public school teaching in the elementary or secondary schools unless Rank III certification was previously earned. The program is approved by the Kentucky Department of Education.

Master of Music in Church Music

The Master of Music in Church Music degree program provides music study for students who wish to prepare for careers in church music ministry. Increasingly, churches expect musicians to have completed significant study in church music beyond the bachelor's level as a prerequisite for service in professional music ministry positions. The School of Music is in a strategic position to respond to the needs of churches both within the Baptist denomination and of other affiliations by nurturing church musicians who are thoroughly prepared to meet the challenges of ministry through music.

Campbellsville University is the only private college or university in Kentucky to offer the Master of Music in Church Music degree program.

All the courses offered in the Master of Music in Church Music curriculum are designed to go beyond the scope of courses in the undergraduate music student's experience. Graduate music students must complete coursework in foundational studies, methods and literature, and research seminar, while participating in applied music instruction and ensembles. The broad spectrum of this coursework helps to ensure that there is a fusion of musical and intellectual skills in students who understand the biblical, theological, and historical background as well as the practical concerns of church music ministry in the contemporary church.

ADMISSION TO THE MUSIC GRADUATE PROGRAM

Admissions criteria which will be reviewed using a holistic procedure are the following. Specific degrees may have additional requirements.

- Possession of a bachelor's degree in music, or permission from the Graduate Music Admissions Committee.
- Submission of two letters of recommendation including one from an individual who can speak to the applicant's academic and/or professional capabilities or potential.
- Submission of official transcripts of all college work from accredited institutions (both undergraduate and graduate) confirming a minimum GPA 2.75 on a 4.0 scale overall, including professional education courses, if applicable, and in the applicant's undergraduate major or academic emphasis.
- Completion of the application form, including an essay which discusses the applicant's interest in and commitment to graduate study.
- Submission of a recent recital tape or an audition tape demonstrating performance skill.
- All applicants must pass an entrance examination in music theory and music history and literature, and take appropriate steps to remediate any deficiencies.

- International students must show proficiency in English as a Second Language either through the TOEFL Exam (Test of English as a Foreign Language) or by completing the English as a Second Language (ESL) program at Campbellsville University. The minimum acceptable score on the TOEFL is 550 for the paper-based exam or 213 on the computer-based exam.

REQUIREMENTS FOR THE MUSICE GRADUATE PROGRAM

- The program consists of successfully completing 30 semester hours of credit as specified in the applicant's degree plan.
- No D grades and no more than 3 hours of C grades will count toward degree completion; no grade below B- will be allowed for applied study; the candidate must also have an overall 3.0 grade-point average for graduation.
- A maximum of 6 semester hours of graduate credit may be transferred from other accredited graduate institutions if those credits match the course requirements of the graduate program. Approval of transfer credits will result from an examination of the transcript (accompanied by appropriate documentation) by the Graduate Music Admissions Committee.
- A maximum of 6 hours may be taken by appointment.
- The graduate student will be required to compile either a portfolio of work related to the curriculum of the program, a research paper of 35-50 pages, or a recital of 40-60 minutes as specified in the respective degree plan. The portfolio may include research projects, writing projects, videotapes of classes taught related to graduate studies or rehearsals conducted.
- A final comprehensive examination is required in music education.
- Each full-time resident graduate student must participate in a University-sponsored performing organization for two semesters.

ADMISSION TO DEGREE CANDIDACY

Admission to candidacy for the graduate degrees in music requires the student to complete the following:

- Fifteen semester hours of graduate level course work.
- Achievement of a minimum grade point average of 3.0 in all graduate-level courses taken at the University and those approved for transfer to be applied to fulfillment of degree requirements.
- Successful completion of all applicable entrance examinations.

A grade point average of 2.75 or above at the undergraduate level on a scale of A = 4.0 is required for applicants who have had no previous graduate study. A grade point average of 2.75 or above on a scale of A = 4.0 is required for applicants seeking to transfer previous graduate work into the program.

This program has no residence requirements.

A maximum of 12 semester hours of graduate credit (excluding applied credit) may be transferred from other accredited graduate institutions if those credits match the course requirements of the graduate program. Approval of transfer credits will result from an examination of the transcript (accompanied by appropriate documentation) by the Graduate Music Admissions Committee. A minimum of 30 semester hours of credit is required beyond the baccalaureate for this program.

Candidates for the Master of Arts in Music degree must present a research paper of 35-50 pages or a graduate recital of 40-60 minutes as a culminating project. The final exam for each course serves as a comprehensive examination for core areas.

Candidates for the Master of Music in Church Music and Master of Music in Music Education degrees are required to compile a portfolio of work related to the student's curriculum. It may include research projects, writing projects, videotapes of classes taught related to graduate studies, rehearsals conducted, and/or a lecture/recital presented as a culminating project. The student's major advisor will evaluate the portfolio for thoroughness and quality of the material presented and, if necessary, make recommendations for additions or changes in the portfolio. The portfolio relates to the objectives of the degree program by providing evidence of the music education.

A comprehensive examination will be given upon the conclusion of the student's course work in either church music or music education. Comprehensive examinations in music courses outside church music or music education will be given at the end of each course as the final exam upon the discretion of the instructor.

Candidates for the Master of Arts in Music degree must present a research paper of 35-50 pages or a graduate recital on 40-60 minutes as a culminating project. The final exam for each course serves as a comprehensive examination for core areas.

COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

MUS 501 Survey of Music Theory

3 hours

This course will present an overview of the field of music theory, with a particular emphasis on its history and philosophy. Students will utilize a variety of analytical procedures, and will investigate the various techniques for teaching theory and musicianship.

MUS 518 Music in the Medieval and Renaissance

3 hours

This course is intended to discuss the development of Western music from the Ancient musical and cultural traditions to the end of the sixteenth century. It will emphasize the study of vocal and instrumental music, including major composers, forms, and styles of composition.

MUS 519 Music in the Baroque Period

3 hours

This course is intended to provide students an extensive overview of the vocal and instrumental music of the Baroque style from 1600 to 1750. It will investigate the musical developments, concepts, composers, and historical issues of the Baroque period and the impact it caused in subsequent generations.

MUS 520 Music in the Classic Period

3 hours

This course emphasizes a survey of music during the Classical period of Western music history. The study concentrates upon the development of Eighteenth-Century homophonic styles and progresses through the compositions of Haydn, Mozart, and Beethoven.

MUS 521 Music in the Nineteenth Century

3 hours

A study of major stylistic trends, genres, and leading personalities in the development of Nineteenth Century Romanticism in Western art music.

MUS 522 Music in the Twentieth Century

3 hours

This course is a survey of styles and trends in music from 1900 to the present. Emphasis is placed upon both major and minor composers and their contributions in light of social-cultural developments during the century.

MUS 524 Music in World Cultures

3 hours

The development of traditional and classical music in non-Western cultures around the world. The course serves as an introduction to the discipline of ethnomusicology and the study of music as human behavior. Parallels MUS 325 and requires an extended research or instrument building project.

MUS 526 Organ Literature

3 hours

A chronological survey of works written for organ. The survey includes instruments available to the composers at the time they were writing and stylistic characteristics of different regions in Europe in regards to organ literature.

MUS 530 Special Topics in Musicology

3 hours

This course is intended to provide students an in-depth discussion of specific topics in musicology. It will concentrate on the history of particular composers, musical developments, and other musicological concepts.

MUS 540 History and Philosophy of Music Education 3 hours
This course will examine the historical and philosophical foundation of music education. Through lectures and discussion, elements of aesthetics will be addressed and the relationship of aesthetic education to music will be examined.

MUS 541 Introduction to Piano Pedagogy 3 hours
This course will help the student develop a basic understanding of piano teaching and piano technique and will critically evaluate teaching methods and approaches to piano instruction.

MUS 542 Voice Research and Pedagogy 3 hours
This course surveys historical, empirical, and experimental research in singing and the singing voice past, present, and future. The effects of past voice research on the teaching and art of singing are explored. Students participate in a variety of research projects using currently accepted methods to examine the vocal tract in use.

MUS 543 Advanced Conducting 3 hours
This course is designed to further develop the skill of conducting and rehearsal techniques for an ensemble conductor. Emphasis will be placed on stylistic development, score study and preparation, and verbal and visual communication.

MUS 544 Methods of Research in Music 3 hours
This course will provide the opportunity for each student to become familiar with the basic concepts and techniques for research methodology in music. Research techniques in the historical, experimental, descriptive, philosophical, and analytical classifications will be examined.

MUS 545 Instrumental Methods and Literature 3 hours
This course will examine literature and techniques of teaching, organization, and supervision of the public school band program. Discussion, lectures and various projects will be used to address the concerns of the instrumental music program. Literature from transcriptions to contemporary band scores will be examined. Various pedagogical approaches will be investigated.

MUS 546 Choral Methods and Literature 3 hours
An examination of strategies for working with choral groups, including rehearsal planning, rehearsal techniques, choral warm-ups, developing choral musicianship, audition procedures, seating arrangements, score preparation, concert planning, etc. Survey of (secular) choral music past and present.

MUS 547 Current Methodologies and Assessment in Music Education 3 hours
This course will examine various major methodologies in music education that are in use today including, Orff, Kodaly, Jaques-Dalcroze, Gordon, and others. An examination of these methods and their applicability to various school issues such as the effects of school reform, block scheduling, and Gardner's Multiple Intelligences will take place. Assessment, an integral part of the education process, will also be considered in terms of the specific methodology in music education.

MUS 548 Piano Literature 3 hours

This course will survey the literature for solo piano beginning with the earliest music for stringed keyboard instruments and extending to the present day.

MUS 549 Teaching Intermediate and Advanced Piano 3 hours

SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY MISSION AND GOALS

The mission of the School of Theology is to produce world changers. We carry out this task with a wholehearted response of gratitude, worship, and stewardship to God as revealed in Jesus Christ. The tools for the task consist of a comprehensive program of Christian studies (Biblical studies, theology, philosophy, pastoral ministries & counseling, church history, educational ministries, sports ministry, and evangelism) within the context of a fellowship of learners dedicated to searching for and living within the truth under the guidance of the Holy Spirit. This is done as an integral part of the mission and core values of Campbellsville University.

The School of Theology identifies world changers as persons who are . . .

- (1) Passionately evangelical: who are passionate about God's good news in Jesus Christ and who have a strong desire for others to experience life in him;
- (2) Rooted in the story: who love God's powerful Word and who in community with others are learning, knowing, trusting, and following the Sacred Scriptures which are able, from beginning to end, to show the way to salvation in Jesus Christ;
- (3) Church-connected: who have a high view of the local church, but whose field of vision does not limit ministry to within the "four walls" and who see the local church as a base from which to go out into the world;
- (4) Servant leaders: who are of high moral character and kingdom heart; who are developing Jesus' qualities of servant leadership and who in turn develop servant leaders under them;
- (5) Spiritual entrepreneurs: who are creative, energized by the possibilities of what God and faithful persons together can do; builders who start with nothing and see spiritual dreams take shape; inventors capable of reinvention to maintain effective ministry; and
- (6) Partners in an enduring fellowship: who make an impact for Christ during their student days; alumni who display an abiding love for and commitment towards the University; brotherhoods and sisterhoods, forged at CU, that are fruitful for ministry well beyond graduation.

The goals of the School of Theology, with faculty committed by faith and empowered by the Spirit to produce world changers, are:

- (1) To nurture, to cultivate each student's personal relationship with God, enrich each student's maturity of faith and knowledge about God, and assist in the development of Christian discipleship;
- (2) To engage, to lead students to a deeper understanding of the scriptures as well as the will and purpose of God for individuals, families, communities, and societies;
- (3) To equip, to assist in preparing students for the vocational calling of following Christ in all areas of life, church-related, parachurch, missions, and secular; and
- (4) To send, to carry the school's educational work within and beyond the walls of the campus to fulfill the mission of the University and the Christian faith.

FINANCIAL AID

Students who wish complete financial aid information related to all students in the University are advised to consult the current University Bulletin/Catalog and the University's office of Financial Aid. Information related to student aid available specifically for candidates for the M.Th. degree in the School of Theology is also available. Students are encouraged to write a letter of inquiry to University P.O. Box 1261 requesting application materials. An appropriate form will be sent in a timely way to those making such an inquiry. The following two sources are available:

General Student Fund: Limited funds are available to School of Theology students who demonstrate financial need. Partial scholarship assistance on a semester-by-semester basis is available.

The George W. and Myrtle Howell Memorial Scholarship is available to assist students who are presently employed in a ministerial position and who show definite financial need.

ADMISSIONS TO THE MASTER OF THEOLOGY PROGRAM

Students who wish to be admitted to graduate studies in the School of Theology must first complete all application procedures required by the Office of Admissions of the University. When admission to the University's graduate studies program is completed, students will be informed of their general University admission and their application materials will be forwarded to the Dean of the School of Theology for assessment.

Applicants will be advised of additional requirements including an interview with the Dean of the School, and, when the additional requirements related to the School of Theology have been satisfied; the Dean will carry the application forward to the University's Graduate Council. Applicants will then be notified of their acceptance status.

Prerequisites: U.S. Citizens

- Applicants must first be accepted for Graduate School Education by the admissions Department of Campbellsville University.
- Applicants must have earned an undergraduate degree from a regionally accredited college or university.
- Applicants must have earned 18 hours of course work in Christian Studies from a regionally accredited college or university. In the event of a prerequisite deficit, the student may request the Dean's permission to enroll in a total of 6 hours of graduate seminar work while actively pursuing the 18 hours of prerequisite undergraduate coursework. All admissions prior to the completion of the 18 hours of prerequisite Christian studies will be "conditional."
- Applicants must have a minimum GPA of 3.0 in upper level (junior and senior) undergraduate major work and at least a 2.70 overall GPA.
- Applicants must present a two to three page Philosophy of Ministry essay in which the applicant briefly summarizes his or her (1) conversion and call to ministry (telling of person[s] and church[es] instrumental in your journey into faith); (2) current title and place of ministry (if none, describe most recent title/place of ministry), and (3) current philosophy of ministry (providing both a biblical and theological basis; be sure to include

- references to persons, churches, ministries, and other resources that have shaped/continue to shape your understanding of Christian ministry).
- Applicants must provide an official report from their Graduate Record Examination (GRE).
 - Applicants must have a minimum of two letters of reference in support of admission to graduate studies in theology, one each from a post-secondary professor with whom the student has studied, and a member of the clergy who is familiar with the student's commitment to and potential gifts for ministry.
 - Applicants may transfer a total of 12 hours credit (1) from other regionally accredited master's degree programs (2) if the content of the courses transferred are equivalent to required courses within the M.Th. curriculum, or judged to be so by the faculty of the School of Theology, and (3) if the student has earned at least a "B" grade in the courses.

Prerequisites: International Students

- Applicants must satisfy the prerequisites for US American students listed above.
- Applicants must have received satisfactory scores in English as a Second Language training, or achieve a satisfactory score in the University's equivalent requirement through other certified programs at the time of application. Minimum TOEFL scores are as follows: (1) Paper-based 550; (2) Computer-based 213; Internet-based 79-80.
- An international applicant may also transfer up to a total of 12 hours of earned credit in a masters degree program from an international university or seminary (1) when the content and quality of the courses are judged to be equivalent by the School of Theology faculty and (2) the applicant's school has been certified as graduate-equivalent education by the World Education Service (WES).
- All courses transferred for credit must reveal a minimum grade of "B" for the course to be transferred.
- All applicants must have an interview with the Dean of the School of Theology.

REQUIREMENTS FOR THE MASTER OF THEOLOGY

The master of theology degree is designed for full-time or part-time students, especially those preparing to enter vocational ministry or those already serving as ministers. It consists of studies in the traditional areas of Christian clergy education with an 18-hour emphasis in either Biblical Studies, Educational Ministries, Pastoral Ministry, or Theological/Historical/Philosophical Studies.

Standard Course Outline:

- Biblical Studies, (2, three hour seminars)
- Theological/Historical/Philosophical Studies, (2, three hour seminars)
- Pastoral Ministry Studies, (2, three hour seminars)
- Educational Ministry Studies, (2, three hour seminars)
- then either
- Four additional seminars in one of the four fields of study above (combining to make 6 seminars in that field, or 18 hours of emphasis) to conclude with a written Comprehensive Essay in that chosen field of study (see "Additional Requirements").

below).

or

- Two additional seminars (6 hours) in one of the four fields of study above and then completion of a 75-page minimum thesis that focuses on some aspect of the student's area of emphasis. This "Thesis Option," available only by professor/supervisor approval, includes the preparation and faculty approval of a thesis prospectus, and 2, three hour thesis writing seminars);
- Supervised Practicum (one semester, three hours of credit).

Each of the seminars is presented with a balanced approach blending academic research and professional application. Students may elect additional seminars as electives, but must fulfill one of the two options above and complete the three-hour Supervised Practicum.

General Requirements

- Thirty-nine (39) hours of graduate coursework is required for the degree.
- GPA average during pursuit of the degree must be 3.0 for all seminars.
- Only one "C" grade may be offered for credit toward the 39 required hours.
- No "D" grade will be accepted as satisfactory for degree completion. Students earning a "D" grade may repeat the course, and the highest grade (of B or better—or see previous requirement related to the acceptability of one grade of "C") earned in a subsequent attempt will be considered for degree completion.
- Students will complete two (2) seminars in each of the four general areas of M.Th. studies, (a total of six (6) hours in each of the four areas) making a total of 24 hours of graduate research coursework.
- For an 18-hour emphasis, students combine the 2 seminars above with an additional four (4) seminars in the same general area of M.Th. studies, making a total of 18 hours of emphasis (for a total of 36 hours of seminar coursework). Only by prior professor approval may a student elect the "Thesis Option" (as described in "Standard Outline" above).
- Students, in consultation with the Professor of Pastoral Ministries & Counseling (for Main Campus students) or Director of Louisville Educational Center (for Louisville Center students), will select an appropriate ministry placement with a ministry title, secure a journeyman minister as a field supervisor, and will complete course CHS 599 under the academic supervision of a professor of ministry. This is a three (3) hour course.
- The Dean of the School of Theology serves as advisor for Main Campus students, and the Director of the Louisville Education Center serves as advisor for Louisville Students.

Additional Requirements for Thesis Option or Comprehensive Essay:

- Students desiring an 18-hour emphasis in either Biblical Studies, Educational Ministries, Pastoral Ministry & Counseling, or Theology/Philosophy/History must complete in addition to all coursework a Comprehensive Essay, which must be completed during the last trimester of the student's M.Th. program. The Comprehensive Essay allows the student to (1) update the Philosophy of Ministry statement made at application into the program and to (2) to synthesize the 18-hr area of emphasis with his or her Philosophy of Ministry statement. The student will follow the instructions below.

- Declare intent to write the Comprehensive Essay to your Advisor (see INTENT TO WRITE M.TH. COMPREHENSIVE ESSAY in the Appendix).
- Compose a 7-10 page critical essay (New Times Roman font, 1" margins, with cover page [title, your name, date, advisor's name]) in which you update your Philosophy of Ministry statement in light of your 18-hour emphasis. Synthesize your understanding of the philosophy and practice of Christian ministry with the knowledge and skills that were part of your seminar coursework. In light of your 18-hour emphasis respond to the following questions (be as specific as possible).
 - How would you now describe your philosophy of Christian ministry?
 - How has study in your area of emphasis altered, expanded, and/or given new vision for your philosophy of ministry?
 - What sources and resources do you now hold as necessary for ministry?
 - What new goals do you set for yourself and for your ministry?
- Submit the essay to your advisor as per date listed on the INTENT form. Students selecting the thesis option (with prior approval by supervisory professor) to fulfill degree requirements will follow the specific directions stipulated in courses CHS 681 Thesis Writing I, and CHS 682 Thesis Writing II.
- Students may select the thesis option only with faculty/supervisor approval and must receive faculty approval of their completed "prospectus" before beginning Thesis Writing 681. Carefully prepared thesis prospectus instructions are available from School of Theology office (270-789-5029). Each Student must prepare a prospectus under the direction of the student's chosen faculty advisor, who will present the prospectus to a regularly scheduled School Faculty meeting for approval. The student's faculty advisor will also direct the research and writing of the thesis.

Additional Courses that may be applied to the Pastoral Ministry area:

COU 500 Counseling Theories and Practice I

3 hours

This course is a survey of the major theoretical systems of counseling and psychotherapy. Specific application of theoretical principles will be investigated, analyzed and described regarding therapeutic intervention. Course content includes an emphasis in systems theory, development of basic counseling techniques, philosophy, principles, and skill development through the video-stimulated recall (VSR) method where students critically interact with each other in reflection and integration of theory and practice for individuals, groups, and family systems.

COU 515 Marriage and Family Counseling

3 hours

This course will study the dynamics of marriage and family relationship with emphasis on understanding and assessing their structure and function through a family systems approach. Attending to family developmental life cycle issues, students will learn ways in which counselors may approach marriage and family counseling as a creative, preventative, and healing enterprise. Both theory and techniques of marriage and family counseling are presented and integrated with careful attention given to psychological, systemic, and theological perspectives.

COU 516 Marriage and Family Counseling II

3 hours

This course is an advanced theoretical exploration of the prevailing models for doing marriage and family counseling with special attention paid to critique and theological integration. Students will explore the historical foundations and evolution of marriage and family therapy as a profession and be exposed to dominant theoreticians and models for the assessment and treatment of marriages and families. Skill building will be emphasized through the video-stimulated recall (VSR) method. Prerequisite: Marriage and Family Counseling.
