

STUDENT TEACHER AGREEMENT

THIS AGREEMENT made at Campbellsville, Kentucky, this 25th day of May 2017 between Campbellsville University (hereinafter called the University) and Adair County Schools (hereinafter called the Board).

WITNESS:

51. The University, under the provision of KRS 161.042 and pursuant to State Board of Education regulations is authorized to enter into cooperative agreements, including financial agreements, with school boards for the purpose of providing professional laboratory experiences and student teaching experiences for students preparing for the educational profession.
52. The University and the Board accept joint responsibility to educate qualified teachers.
53. The University and the Board agree that all arrangements in reference to this program shall be governed and consistent with policies of the University as well as those of the Board.
54. As provided in KRS 161.042 (3) the student teachers placed in Adair County Schools shall agree to abide by all policies, rules, and regulations of the Board. Failure to abide by this provision shall be grounds for removal from the program. It shall be the responsibility of the University to inform all prospective student teachers of this provision and secure agreement from the student teacher.
55. The Board, through its staff, shall make assignments of student teachers subject to its limitations and in accordance with its philosophy of teacher education. Nothing in this agreement shall preclude the Board from exercising its right to remove from its classrooms student teachers who, in the judgment of its staff, have an adverse influence on the welfare of pupils, detract from the total school program, or do not contribute to the advancement of the educational profession.
56. The Board shall work with the University upon request to identify properly qualified and certified teachers from within the system under whose direct supervision the student will teach.

UNIVERSITY/COLLEGE STUDENT PLACEMENT AGREEMENT BETWEEN
JEFFERSON COUNTY PUBLIC SCHOOLS AND
Campbellsville UNIVERSITY/COLLEGE
2017-2018

THIS AGREEMENT made at Louisville, Kentucky and effective this 1st day of July, 2017, between the Board of Education of Jefferson County, Kentucky, hereinafter called the "Board," and Campbellsville University, hereinafter called the "University/College."

WITNESSETH:

1. The Board, under the provisions of KRS 161.042(5), is authorized to enter into cooperative agreements with universities/colleges for the purpose of permitting teacher education students, other than university/college students, to engage in supplementary instructional activities with JCPS students under the direction and supervision of the professional administrative and teaching staff of the Board. Such teacher education students are hereinafter referred to as "university/college students." Such activities are hereinafter referred to as "permitted activities."
2. The Board and the University/College accept the joint responsibility to permit the university/college students to engage in the permitted activities.
3. The Board and the University/College agree that all arrangements in reference to this program shall be governed and consistent with Kentucky law (including, but not limited to, KRS 161.042), and the policies of the Board, as well as those of the University/College.
4. The university/college students placed in Jefferson County Public Schools shall agree to abide by all policies, rules and regulations of the University/College and the Board. Failure to abide by this provision shall be grounds for removal from the program. It shall be the responsibility of the University/College to inform all prospective university/college students of this provision and secure agreement from the university/college student.
5. The University/College shall provide pertinent information about each university/college student to the Board at least two (2) months in advance of placement in a Jefferson County Public School.
6. The Board, through its staff, shall assist in making assignments of university/college students subject to its limitations and in accordance with its philosophy of teacher education/practitioner preparation. Nothing in this agreement shall preclude the Board from exercising its right to remove from its classrooms university/college students who, in the judgment of its staff, have an adverse influence on the welfare of JCPS students, detract from the total school program, or do not contribute to the advancement of the educational profession. The Board will notify the University/College in writing if such action is required and the reasons for such action. The University/College assumes the responsibility for attempting to replace the university/college student in another school system if such is necessary or required and that this

sec. 1232g ("FERPA"). The parties agree to comply with the requirements of FERPA and to protect the privacy of education records concerning any university/college student assigned under this Agreement.

14. The University/College acknowledges that the education records of JCPS students are protected by FERPA. The parties agree to comply with the requirements of FERPA and to protect the privacy of education records of JCPS students that are made available to any university/college student assigned under this Agreement.

15. In the event that either Party (the "Disclosing Party") discloses to the other Party (the "Receiving Party") or the Receiving Party otherwise receives/obtains or collects/maintains Personal Information on the Disclosing Party's behalf, as set forth below, as a result of or in connection with this Agreement or any obligation delineated in this Agreement, the Receiving Party hereby agrees to the following:

A. The term "Personal Information" means personally identifiable or identifying information or data, in whatever form, and including as defined in Kentucky law (KRS 61.931(6)) an individual's first name or first initial and last name; personal mark; or unique biometric or genetic print or image, in combination with one (1) or more of the following data elements: (a) An account number, credit card number, or debit card number that, in combination with any required security code, access code, or password, would permit access to an account; (b) A Social Security number; (c) A taxpayer identification number that incorporates a Social Security number; (d) A driver's license number, state identification card number, or other individual identification number issued by any agency; (e) A passport number or other identification number issued by the United States government; or (f) Individually identifiable health information as defined in 45 C.F.R. sec. 160.103, except for education records covered by FERPA.

B. The Receiving Party and its employees, agents, and contractors (collectively "Affiliates") may obtain, access or collect (collectively "obtain" or collectively in the past tense "obtained") Personal Information only if specifically authorized by and necessary and required in connection with this Agreement.

C. In addition to any protections to the Disclosing Party in this Agreement or any other documents, and any provision in this Agreement or any other documents to the contrary notwithstanding, the Receiving Party: (1) acknowledges that it is familiar with the terms and provisions of applicable law, including KRS 61.931 et seq., and will fully comply with it; (2) will not use any Personal Information other than for the purpose of performing its obligations for the Disclosing Party under this Agreement; (3) will not re-disclose any such information to any third party not specifically involved in fulfilling its obligations for the Disclosing Party under this Agreement; and (4) shall ensure that prior to granting its Affiliates access to any Personal Information, such individuals or entities are informed of and agree to abide by confidentiality obligations no less restrictive than those contained herein, and the Receiving Party will require all Affiliates to comply with the security procedures and practices and breach investigation procedures and practices as provided herein. Any release or re-disclosure of Personal Information must be in accordance with applicable law including 34 CFR 99.33(a), and to the deadlines in KRS 61.933(1)(b) but the Receiving Party will ensure that the Disclosing Party has the opportunity to review and approve all notices to be sent. The Disclosing Party will have the opportunity to review any report produced as the result of the investigation. Without limiting the preceding, the Receiving Party will be fully responsible for complying with all other law applicable to any security breach related to Personal Information regardless of whether the security breach relates to Personal Information obtained by or in the possession of or maintained by or on behalf of the Receiving Party or any Affiliate. The Receiving Party will be fully responsible for all costs associated with its and the Disclosing Party's complying with the provisions of KRS 61.931 et seq., and any other Federal or state law including the law of any other state, as the result of a security breach hereunder.

H. If the Receiving Party is required by federal law or regulation to conduct security breach investigations or to make notifications of security breaches, or both, as a result of the unauthorized disclosure of one (1) or more data elements of Personal Information that is the same one (1) or more of the data elements of Personal Information listed above, the Receiving Party shall meet the requirements hereunder by providing to the Disclosing Party a copy of any and all reports and investigations relating to such security breach investigations or notifications that are required to be made by federal law or regulations. This paragraph shall not apply if the security breach includes the unauthorized disclosure of data elements that are not covered by federal law or regulation but are listed above.

I. Any provision in this Agreement or any other document to the contrary notwithstanding, including but not limited to any provision related to limitation of liability, the Receiving Party shall to the extent permitted by Kentucky law fully indemnify and hold harmless the Disclosing Party, the Disclosing Party's Board of Trustees or Regents or Board of Education, as applicable, and its and their Trustees or Regents or Board Members, as applicable, agents, and employees, in their individual and official capacities, from and against any and all claims, losses, expenses, damages, liabilities and obligations, including, without limitation, reasonable court costs and attorneys' fees (collectively, "Losses") suffered or incurred by them to the extent that such Losses arise out of any security breach relating to Personal Information.

J. Without the Disclosing Party's prior written consent, the Receiving Party shall not consent to, and will ensure no Affiliate consents to, the entry of a judgment or award, or enter into a settlement, which does not include a release of the Disclosing Party, the Disclosing Party's Board of Regents or Board of Education, as applicable, and its and their Regents or Board Members, as applicable, agents, and employees, in their individual and official capacities, from all liability with respect to the Losses.

K. Without limiting any of the preceding, the Receiving Party will bear any and all costs associated with notifying all individuals who are the victims of, and will bear any and all costs of such individuals in connection with, any such security breach involving Personal Information.

L. The provisions of this Section 15 will survive termination of this Agreement for whatever reason.

M. As used herein, "security breach" includes: 1. the unauthorized acquisition, distribution, disclosure, destruction, manipulation, or release by the Receiving Party or any Affiliate of unencrypted or unredacted records or data that compromises or the Disclosing Party or the Receiving Party believes may compromise the security, confidentiality, or integrity of Personal Information and result in the likelihood of harm to one (1) or more individuals; or 2. the unauthorized acquisition, distribution, disclosure, destruction, manipulation, or release by the Receiving Party or any Affiliate of encrypted records or data containing Personal Information along with the confidential process or key to unencrypt the records or data that compromises or the Disclosing Party or the Receiving Party reasonably believes may compromise the security, confidentiality, or integrity of Personal Information and result in the likelihood of harm to one (1) or more individuals. Without limiting the preceding, security breach includes the theft or misappropriation or improper use, access, or disclosure of Personal Information obtained by or in the possession of or maintained or stored by or on behalf of the Receiving Party or any Affiliate. In the event of any dispute between the Receiving Party and the Disclosing Party as to whether a security breach has occurred, the Disclosing Party's determination will be conclusive and the Receiving Party will proceed in accordance herewith.

N. Upon expiration or termination of this Agreement, for any reason, the Receiving Party agrees to destroy any and all Personal Information obtained by or in the possession of or maintained or stored by or on behalf of the Receiving Party or any Affiliate in a manner that completely protects the confidentiality of the information after copies thereof have been returned to the Disclosing Party, if requested, unless the Disclosing Party directs that such Personal Information be transferred to another person or entity. In no event will any copies of Personal Information be retained by the Receiving Party or any Affiliates.

16. The period covered by this Agreement shall be from July 2017 to July 2018 inclusive, and will automatically renew unless either party provides written notice of non-renewal at least 30 days prior to the end of the term. This Agreement supersedes all previous contracts between the parties.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, we the undersigned, duly authorized representatives of the parties to this Agreement, have caused this Agreement to be executed on the dates set forth below, to be effective as of the date first above written.

STUDENT TEACHER AGREEMENT

THIS AGREEMENT made at Campbellsville, Kentucky, this 25th day of May 2017 between Campbellsville University (hereinafter called the University) and Pulaski County Schools (hereinafter called the Board).

WITNESS:

81. The University, under the provision of KRS 161.042 and pursuant to State Board of Education regulations is authorized to enter into cooperative agreements, including financial agreements, with school boards for the purpose of providing professional laboratory experiences and student teaching experiences for students preparing for the educational profession.
82. The University and the Board accept joint responsibility to educate qualified teachers.
83. The University and the Board agree that all arrangements in reference to this program shall be governed and consistent with policies of the University as well as those of the Board.
84. As provided in KRS 161.042 (3) the student teachers placed in Pulaski County Schools shall agree to abide by all policies, rules, and regulations of the Board. Failure to abide by this provision shall be grounds for removal from the program. It shall be the responsibility of the University to inform all prospective student teachers of this provision and secure agreement from the student teacher.
85. The Board, through its staff, shall make assignments of student teachers subject to its limitations and in accordance with its philosophy of teacher education. Nothing in this agreement shall preclude the Board from exercising its right to remove from its classrooms student teachers who, in the judgment of its staff, have an adverse influence on the welfare of pupils, detract from the total school program, or do not contribute to the advancement of the educational profession.
86. The Board shall work with the University upon request to identify properly qualified and certified teachers from within the system under whose direct supervision the student will teach.

16 KAR 5:040 identifies requirements for the cooperating teacher:

- have a valid Kentucky teaching certificate for grade and subject taught;
- have at least three years of teaching experience on a Professional Certificate;
- the ratio of student teachers to cooperating teachers shall be 1 to 1.

In addition, Campbellsville University School of Education requests that a cooperating teacher complete KTIP TPA training.

87. A written report to the University concerning the process and accomplishments of the student teacher shall be made by the cooperating teacher, along with a recommended grade in keeping with the University model for grading.
88. The University shall designate a representative(s) to serve as liaison between it and the Board. This person(s), as a representative of the University, shall have access to all Board staff and schools necessary to facilitate proper communication and relationships between the Board staff, cooperating teacher, and the student teachers.
89. Compensation will be made based upon the most recent General Assembly allocated funding for the compensation of teachers who supervise student teachers. The University also provides compensation.
90. As provided for in KRS 161.042 (4) the University may arrange with the Board to provide supplementary instructional activities for its teacher education students, other than student teachers. Where activities of this nature are desired by the University, arrangements shall be made with the Superintendent or his/her designee.

IT IS MUTUALLY AGREED by and between the parties that the period covered by this agreement shall be from July 1, 2017 until June 30, 2018 inclusive, and supersedes all previous contracts between the parties.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, we, the undersigned, duly authorized representatives of the parties to this agreement, have hereunto set our hands this 13th day of June, 2017.
