1	Mary Shelby was an amazing cooperating teacher! Any student teacher would learn and grow significantly in this classroom!	5/16/2018 1:05 PM
2	Betsy Everman was a wonderful cooperating teacher! She helped me grow significantly as a teacher.	5/16/2018 1:03 PM
3	Mrs Ruble was a great cooperating teacher! At times I felt that I was observing more than assisting. The chaos of 1st grade could contribute to this. I loved this placement and she did a great job and allowing me to co-teach with her!	5/15/2018 12:28 PM
4	I loved this placement and highly recommend her to another future student teacher! The other 5th grade teachers were helpful as well! I felt apart of the team!	5/15/2018 12:25 PM
5	Nina provided me with all of the answers to the questions that I had about developmental interventionist. She is highly knowledgeable in this field and has a large case load of families that truly give a good representation of what you may see in this field of work.	5/12/2018 11:04 AM
6	Betsy was wonderful and really allowed me to show my strengths and abilities in her classroom as freely as if it were my own. She gave great feedback and wonderful insight.	5/12/2018 11:00 AM
7	Sarah is an incredible cooperating teacher. She offers wonderful advice and specific feedback that is genuinely helpful. I would encourage any music student who is need of help with classroom management to student teach with her! The only thing that makes me hesitate in this recommendation is that she is an art teacher for 2 of the 5 days of the week, so I'm not completely sure if this is ideal for a music experience.	5/11/2018 8:15 AM
8	Very helpful CT!	5/11/2018 8:12 AM

CU Cooperating Teacher Evaluation

14	Erin was an interesting teacher to work with. She was very nice and excited to have me in the classroom, but her teaching style was hard to follow. She told me the first day that she has ADD, and that she often just pulls worksheets from the shelves according to her mood She does not follow the school curriculum very closely but has found her own worksheets and activities that loosely follow the intended daily goals of the curriculum. This was a great system for her and worked well in her classroom, but it was not an easy system for me to learn/work with. She was also very difficult to read in terms of whether she was joking or being serious. For example, my first day in the classroom she told students "I'm going to hurt you," "come over here so I can give you a whipping," and other similar comments that took me off guard but was meant in a joking manner as part of her rapport with the students. While students were not around she would talk about them in a negative manner, pointing out ways she thought they were weird or gossiping about the parents. Similarly, she would be nice to co-workers to their face but as soon as they left she would make of them/their clothes/what they said, or generally talk negatively about them. While she was nice to me and provided me with valuable feedback for improvement, I never felt comfortable in the room because I was always worried about what she may have been saying about me behind my back. Erin is a great teacher and I learned several valuable strategies while in her classroom, but she has a very strong personality that can be a little off-putting.	5/11/2018 1:32 AM
15	Ms. Allen seemed to view me as an additional assistant in the classroom. She assigned me assistant duties and had me follow the assistant schedule. She informed me that she was not paid enough by Campbellsville to read the student manual She did not do the training because she recently had a student teacher from Western and did not feel that she needed to be retrained. After the first 2 weeks she had me do all of the instruction while she did district assessments, but I was not allowed to help with the assessments or attend meetings. When I tried to go to a meeting, she told me that I had to stay in the classroom so that she could attend the meeting herself. An assistant in another classroom later told my second placement teacher that Tina treated me "subhuman" (I didn't think it was quite that bad, but apparently that was the impression others had.) Tina expected me to know everything without actually taking the time to explain classroom procedures and expectations. This is something that she does with her full time assistants as well. I would not recommend using Tina Allen for future student teacher placements.	5/11/2018 1:22 AM
16	Mrs. Wiseman is great! She was very helpful and positive to work with!	5/10/2018 11:07 PM
17	I loved working with Mrs. Jones! She is great!!	5/10/2018 11:04 PM
18	Ms. Howard is an excellent educator. I will admit that there were times when I felt more valuable in her room than others, but she gave me all of the space I needed to do the lessons that I thought were necessary. She guided me with resources and introduced me to several people who are influential in the education career field. Ms. Howard wants to pursue her career further in administration, which I fully support. She has a knack for leadership and seeing others succeed. I think that she will make a fine principal.	5/10/2018 10:01 PM
19	Greg was a phenomenal person to work with. He not only challenged me in the teaching field, but he also helped me grow spiritually. This, I think, was more valuable than anything I could have learned in the classroom. Greg helped me see that teaching is less about the job, and more about the ministry. He has two years until retirement, I definitely think that more student teachers should be placed in his room. I also think that he would make a great adjunct professor for the Harrodsburg Campus, if there was ever a need for one. I was very pleased when I left his room.	5/10/2018 9:57 PM
20	Mrs. Butler was very easy to get along with. She welcomed my creativity and ideas when I taught lessons and units. I really enjoyed being at KCA, however, I don't know that I would place someone there for both student teaching placements in the future simply because it is so different from public schools.	5/10/2018 9:42 PM
21	I enjoyed working with Mrs. Ward. She was very organized and offered suggestions to help improve my teaching. She also cared enough to get to know me more personally. All of the staff at KCA is great.	5/10/2018 9:39 PM
22	She was out of the room a lot with no instructions on what she needed me to do with the students.	5/10/2018 9:15 PM
23	She was a very good role model and was always very helpful.	5/10/2018 9:11 PM
24	Sh was wonderful to work with and very helpful.	5/10/2018 6:22 PM
25	She was a wonderful person to work with. We got to know each other personally as well as professionally. I definitely feel that I have developed a lasting relationship with her. She has excellent classroom management and different teaching strategies to really engage her students.	5/10/2018 6:19 PM

26	Ms. O'Daniel is a highly effective teacher, and she gave me very specific feedback. I would highly recommend her to work with other student teachers that wants to teach Spanish.	5/10/2018 6:08 PM
27	This was a great experience! This teacher welcomed me into her classroom and allowed me to participate from time to time. It was a great experience.	5/10/2018 5:56 PM
28	This was an excellent experience! I couldn't have asked for a better role model to have while in the classroom.	5/10/2018 5:55 PM
29	There was a lack of consistency and frequent absence. I struggled to learn procedures and rarely observed or co taught. Part of this is due to end of the year chaos.	5/10/2018 4:38 PM
30	This placement was outstanding.	5/10/2018 4:36 PM
31	Both of my CT had never had a ST before. I honestly think for their first go-around they did an amazing job. I felt like I learned so much and was welcomed to the school family.	5/10/2018 3:05 PM
32	Jan was a great teacher to work with. She is very resourceful and always have fun things planned that help students to understand even challenging concepts. My situation was unique. Jan was out of school for close to a month, in the mean time I was left as basically the leading teacher. So I got to stand as the teacher and make all the lesson plans and figure out what is what with all of the school personnel. It was a tremendous learning experience. When Jan came back, it was as if she had been there the entire time.	5/10/2018 2:55 PM
33	After each lesson, we always were able to have constructive and meaningful conversations about what went well and what needed to change. I would recommend assigning him future teachers, as they will learn a lot and will feel like they are part of a team and belong in his class.	5/10/2018 2:52 PM
