Job Description

Campbellsville University is seeking applications for a full-time, tenure-track faculty position of Assistant or Associate Professor of Music in the area of voice. Tenor, Baritone or Bass-Baritone preferred. Primary teaching responsibilities will be to teach applied voice to undergraduate and graduate students, with the possibility of teaching area courses such as diction, opera workshop, voice science, or pedagogy depending on the needs of the area and the candidate’s expertise and interest. Additional teaching duties will be assigned based on the candidate’s qualifications, experience, and the needs of the School of Music.

The position will also include an active role in the recruitment of undergraduate and graduate students. The candidate is expected to work in close collaboration with colleagues, to accept other faculty assignments, such as service on university committees, and be committed to teaching excellence and service in a Christian environment. Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled.

Qualifications:

The successful candidate will hold a doctoral degree in voice performance, or vocal pedagogy preferred. However, ABD candidates may be considered. Tenor, Baritone or Bass-Baritone preferred. Individuals applying for this position should have had previous university-level teaching experience. The successful candidate should possess outstanding interpersonal, verbal, writing skills, and is expected to work in close collaboration with colleagues. The candidate should be committed to teaching excellence and service in a Christian environment. Salary and rank will be commensurate with qualifications and experience.

Candidates should fill out the Campbellsville University Employment Application available on the website, and submit a letter of application, and curriculum vitae.
Campbellsville University, a comprehensive Christian institution offering undergraduate (associate and baccalaureate) and graduate (master’s level) programs, stresses academic excellence solidly grounded in the liberal arts, personal growth, integrity, and fellowship within a caring environment. Campbellsville University is centrally located in the heart of Kentucky and has been listed in US News and World Report as one of “America’s Best Colleges” for 18 consecutive years. The University seeks to prepare students to enrich their own lives through lifelong learning, to contribute to their respective disciplines through continued scholarship, and to advance society as Christian servant leaders. An employee of Campbellsville University is expected to participate in the life of a local church in keeping with the spirit of the institutional mission statement and core values. The individual employee is expected to conduct him, or herself, both on campus and off, in a manner becoming an employee of a Christian institution, and the employee should uphold the highest standards of conduct in terms of honesty, truthfulness, respectful attitude, and conduct toward others. Each individual associated with Campbellsville University is to perform his or her daily responsibilities mindful of the intent of the institutional mission statement and core values.
