

The Collingsworth Family Christmas Concert

Campbellsville University is excited to host the Collingsworth Family Christmas Concert. The concert will be on Saturday November 20, 2021 in the Ransdell Chapel at 7:00 p.m. EST.

Tickets are on sale now!

Tickets for the performance will be $30 per person. For tickets and information, call the Office of Development at Campbellsville University at (270) 789-5211 or visit: <https://www.campbellsville.edu/alumni/the-collingsworth-family-concert/>

The Collingsworth Family is a group that originated with husband and wife, Phil and Kim, who took part in ministry performances at church camps and revivals. They are now joined by their four children; Brooklyn, Olivia, Courtney and Phillip – and take great joy in bringing the word of God to their audiences through their musical performances!

They are excited to work with some of Nashville's top producers – with their music receiving multiple awards – such as; Mixed Group of the Year, Musician of the Year and Young Artist of the Year from Singing News Fan Awards. They have also received honors from the Gospel Music Association (GMA) Dove Awards, Ovation Awards.

To learn more about the Collingsworth Family, go to <https://thecollingsworthfamily.com>.

Don't miss this magical performance and reserve your seat today!

Please scan the QR code to access the ticket purchase site from your phone

Campbellsville
UNIVERSITY

