FRANCES SMOTHERS ('36), Marion County, Ky., April 2, 2023

Smothers passed away April 2, 2023 at 105 years of age.

She was a retired teacher who was passionate about education and the transformative role it played in young people's lives.

She is preceded in death by her husband Charles Leo Smothers, her parents, John Mark and Lillie Weatherford Purdom, three brothers Lucien, Edgar and Howard Purdom; four sisters Ruth Chenault, Lee Ewing, Iona Gribbins, and Vivian Irwin. She is survived by a niece, Rose Ann Larson and nephews Bill W. Purdom and Mark W. Irwin as well as other nieces and nephews including great through great, great, great nieces and nephews and many cousins.

Born in Marion County, Kentucky on September 25, 1917, she spent her early years on a farm near the town of Bradfordsville. After receiving an educational degree from Campbellsville College in Kentucky, she began a 38-year teaching career starting in the 1930's in a two room school in the Marion County community of Rush Branch.

Afterwards, she moved on to teach the sixth and seventh grades at Bradfordsville School for eight years. After earning an additional degree at Eastern University at Richmond, Kentucky, she moved to Louisville in the mid 1940's and taught for five years at the old John Marshall Elementary School.

During this period she met her husband to be, Charles L. Smothers (Leo) who upon returning from the Pacific Theater after WW2 was stationed at Fort Knox. They married in 1947 and were happily married for nearly 54 years until Leo's death in 2001. Ms. Smothers continued her educational career for three years at the Fort Knox Elementary School System. She then started teaching in the Jefferson County School System beginning at the old Kosmosdale Elementary School. Ms. Smothers spent the next twenty years teaching primarily at Medora Elementary School in Valley Station.

During this period, she continued her own education receiving her Masters of Education Degree from the University of Louisville in the early sixties. Ms. Smothers retired in 1974 and became involved with numerous civic and church groups, including volunteer work at the former Methodist Hospital of Louisville, and active participation with the Valley Station Women's Club, Bethany United Methodist Church, and the Wesleyan Service Guild.

Ms. Smothers and her husband, Leo generously supported Lindsay Wilson College for over thirty-five years.

In their later years, Frances and Leo travelled extensively across the United States, visiting all fifty states. They also travelled throughout Canada, Europe and particularly had fond memories of their trip to the Holy Lands. Beyond cherishing the memories of her travels, she also enjoyed meeting new people and had fond memories of social gatherings of family and friends. She also took delight in watching the University of Kentucky televised basketball games. Ms. Smothers will be missed by family, friends, students and all who were blessed to have known her.

The family wishes to thank all the special Caregivers and Hosparus Employees who took care of Ms. Smothers in her final months. Many of them became friends and we wish them best as they take care of other individuals in need.

Flowers are welcomed as they will be sent to help brightened nursing homes after the funeral services. However, in lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Hosparus Health of Louisville.

Her Funeral service will be held on Friday at 12noon at the Bethany United Methodist Church, 6100 Moorman Road with Burial following in Bethany Memorial Cemetery.

Visitation will be on Thursday from 4-8pm at the Advantage Funeral Home Hardy Chapel, and at the church on Friday after 10am until time of service at the church. Fond memories and expressions of sympathy may be shared at www.AdvantageHardyChapel.com for the Smothers family.

REV. CURTIS H. WARF ('50), Pierce, Ky., March 4, 2023

Retired Kentucky Baptist Minister Rev. Curtis H. Warf, age 92, widower of Jean Akin Warf, passed away Saturday, March 4, 2023, at Signature Healthcare in Georgetown, where he had been a resident since November 2020.

Curtis was born April 13, 1930, in Green County, near Pierce, Kentucky, to the late Olus and Iva Warf. He grew up working on the farm, and his family often walked three miles to attend the local country church. His call into ministry came early in life at the age of 19. Rev. Warf described it as a “burning desire to preach”-- a desire that led him to begin a successful ministry that would last 45 years. He declared his decision to follow God’s call one Sunday morning in his home church, Campbellsville Baptist. One week later he preached his first sermon at Sano Baptist Church in Columbia, and soon began holding regular Sunday afternoon services in an old schoolhouse in Green County.

In 1950, Plum Point Church called him as pastor. He accepted and was officially ordained. Although eager to begin work, Rev. Warf said he realized then that only God could give him an effective ministry. The young pastor completed studies at Campbellsville College (then a two-year school) then entered Georgetown College, where he received his bachelor's degree in 1952. That fall, he entered the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary in Louisville and in 1956 earned a Master of Divinity degree.

Rev. Warf went on to pastor Friendship Baptist and Mount Roberts Baptist in Campbellsville followed by Bethel Baptist in Western Kentucky; Utica Baptist, near Owensboro; First Baptist of Sturgis; First Baptist Church of Pikeville; and finally First Baptist Church of Richmond, Kentucky. During his ministry, he led churches through various challenges including the aftermath of fire and flood, major building programs, and the planting of several mission churches. Rev. Warf was well-loved and respected wherever he served.

He held many offices within the Kentucky Baptist Convention, including a term as KBC president in 1983, and gave many years of service to Kentucky Baptist Homes for Children. Rev. Warf received honors throughout the years for his faithful service, including Alumni of the Year Award from Campbellsville University and an honorary Doctor of Divinity degree from Georgetown College. After retiring from full-time ministry in 1995, Rev. Warf filled a number of interim pastor positions and was bestowed the title of Pastor Emeritus of First Baptist Church -Richmond. Later, he and his wife moved to Lexington, where they became active members of Calvary Baptist Church.

Even when he was no longer able to preach, Rev. Warf ministered to others through prayer and encouragement at the assisted living and nursing home facilities where he resided in the final years of his life.

Curtis Warf was a faithful, committed pastor to many people throughout the years but wholly committed to his family, as well. As a strong yet fun-loving father, he supported his children in every way and made them proud to be “the preacher’s kids.” As a grandfather and great-grandfather, “Pop” will be remembered as a determined man who wasn’t afraid to be himself and as a loving granddad, “always able to cheer you up and make you laugh.”

Curtis was married 52 years to his beloved wife, Jean, who preceded him in death in 2009. He always said she was his greatest supporter, and their love and devotion for each other inspired both family and friends.

Curtis is survived by his son and daughter-in-law, Dr. Benjamin C. Warf (Cindy) of Lincoln, Massachusetts; his daughter and son-in-law, Beth W. Prassel Sieg (Frank) of Georgetown; nine grandchildren: Joanna Sonnekalb; Micah Warf; Naomi Maxwell; Sarah Warf; Asa Warf; Ezra Warf; Hannah McGee; Joel Prassel; and Jacob Prassel; and seven great-grandchildren. He is also survived by a sister and brother-in-law, Joanna and Nelson Moore of Campbellsville, and a sister-in-law, Inez Warf of Greensburg.

In addition to his wife and parents, he was preceded in death by his brother, Bronston Warf, his sister, Odellia Curry, and a son-in-law, Dr. Richard C. Prassel, Jr.

Funeral Services will be conducted at 6:00 PM Monday, March 13, 2023, at The First Baptist Church, 425 Eastern Bypass, Richmond with Rev. Bill Fort, Dr. Travis Farris, Dr. Bob Baker and Chaplain Glenn Redmond officiating.

The family will receive relatives and friends beginning at 3:00 PM Monday afternoon at the church.

Rev. Warf will be laid to rest on Tuesday, March 14, 2023, at 12:00 PM CST in the Greenlawn Cemetery in Franklin, Kentucky (Simpson County).

His grandsons will serve as pallbearers. Honorary Pallbearers will be the members of The Christian Fellowship Class of Calvary Baptist Church in Lexington and the Deacon Body of First Baptist Church, Richmond.

Memorial Contributions may be made to Sunrise Children’s Services, P.O. Box 1429, Mt. Washington, Kentucky 40047

The family wishes to offer special thanks to all those at Signature Healthcare of Georgetown and Bluegrass Hospice Care who cared for Rev. Warf in his final days as well as to all those who have offered help and condolences during this difficult time.

The Combs, Parsons & Collins Funeral Home is in charge of the arrangements.

EVA MAE MOSER ('52), Shepherdsville, Ky., May 2, 2023

Eva Mae Moser, 91 of Shepherdsville, passed away on Tuesday, May 2, 2023, peacefully at her home, with her family by her side.

Born in Indianapolis, Indiana to Riley and Orse Jagers, she was the eldest of four children. Eva attended Campbellsville College, WKU and U of L, and spent her professional career as an educator, teaching in both Hardin and Bullitt County. She was a Methodist by faith and a member of Davidson Memorial United Methodist Church. She was also a member of the Bullitt County Women's Club, was active with the Girl Scouts of America, and volunteered numerous years with the American Red Cross.

Eva was known to all as a kind and compassionate person, who had no qualms with sharing an opinion, a joke, or an off-color story. She had an unparalleled sense of humor that rarely, if ever, missed, and a sharp wit to match. She was an avid traveler, a stalwart companion, and always quick with a smile. We are all blessed to have had the opportunity to live in her presence, as she made the world a little better place.

She was preceded in death by her loving husband of 59 years, Dr. B.C. Moser; her parents, Riley and Orse Jagers; her siblings, Dr. W.O. Jagers and Betty Bishop Nalley.

Eva is survived by her children, Melanie Moser Thompson of Elizabethtown, and Mark (Stephanie) Moser of Crestwood; her brother, Larry (Carol) Jagers of Glendale; her grandchildren, Victoria (Kody) Hoadley, Erik (Ashleigh) Thompson, Adam (Meredith) Thompson, Alex Thompson, Elizabeth Miller, Claudia, Samuel, Daniel and Nathaniel Moser; her great-granddaughters, Mattiline Claxton, and Hannah Thompson.

Eva had a great love for her family, and she shared that love with her nieces, nephews, and extended family, and made everyone feel special and seen.

A funeral service will be held at 3:00 p.m. on Sunday, May 7, 2023, at Maraman Billings Funeral Home. A burial will follow at Hebron Cemetery. Visitation will be from 11:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. on Saturday, and from 11 a.m. until the time of service on Sunday.

Online condolences to the family may be made at maramanbillings.com

DR. H. RAY ENGLAND ('74), Greenville, Ky., Jan. 9, 2023

Dr. H. Ray England, 70, formerly of Greenville, KY, was welcomed into the arms of Jesus after a 16-year battle with Parkinson's, on Monday, January 9, 2023, at his residence in Evansville, Indiana.

Dr. H. Ray England was born February 2, 1952, in Campbellsville, Kentucky. He graduated from Taylor County High School, Campbellsville College and then received his Master's of Divinity and PhD in Greek and New Testament from Southern Seminary.

He followed God's calling to the ministry in several ways. He was Pastor at Buena Vista Baptist Church (Lancaster, Ky), Mt. Vernon Baptist Church (Waddy, Ky), First Baptist Church Winchester (Winchester, Ky), Minister of Education at Campbellsville Baptist Church (Campbellsville, Ky), and Pastor of Second Baptist Church (Greenville, Ky) where he became affectionately known as Brother Ray.

Brother Ray has always had a heart for missions. He shared the love of Christ around the world throughout many short-term mission trips, served as a trustee for the International Mission Board (IMB) and then served as a missionary in the Philippines with the IMB. Brother Ray shared his love for the scripture through teaching at the Philippine Baptist Theological Seminary and as an adjunct professor.

While Pastor at Second Baptist Church, Bro. Ray also shared his love of Christ by serving the community in too many ways to list here. He not only talked the talk, but he did his best to walk the walk.

Ray, lovingly known as "Pops," enjoyed spending time with his grandchildren, Lord of the Ring marathons, basketball, telling jokes and doing magic tricks. He was a constant source of encouragement, advice, and hugs.

He was greeted in heaven by his parents, Herbert and Elizabeth England; and sister, Wanda Sapp. He will lovingly be remembered by his wife of 48 years, Leslie England; 3 daughters, Mary Beth (Dale) Potts, Jennifer (Todd) Elkins, Stoya (Dustin) Hastings; grandchildren, Wesley, Samuel Ray, and Nolan Potts, Isabella, Kathryn, Mingo, and Owen Elkins, Elias, Lily Rae, and Tobiah Hastings; and brother, Larry (Betty Sue) England.

A Celebration of Life Service will be Saturday, January 14, 2023, at 2:00PM at Second Baptist Church in Greenville, Kentucky with Bro. Josh Smith officiating, assisted by Dr. Kevin Milburn and Bro. Chris Dennis. Visitation will be Friday, January 13, 2023, from 5:00-8:00PM and Saturday at 1:00PM at the church.

Brother Ray's greatest passion, other than his family, was sharing the gospel and love of Christ. In lieu of gifts, please consider supporting our missionaries through a donation to the International Mission Board at www.imb.org/generosity/give-now. Tucker Funeral Homes is in charge of arrangements. Online condolences may be made to www.tuckerfuneralhomes.com.

JOHN THOMAS AYERS ('86), Winston-Salem, N.C., March 11, 2023

With heavy hearts but a strong Christian faith, we announce the passing of John Thomas Ayers of Winston Salem, North Carolina, formerly of Macomb, Michigan on March 11, 2023 at the age of 64. After long and courageous battle with Thyroid cancer, John is finally healed and has gone home to be with Jesus.

John was born on December 20, 1958 in Flint, Michigan. He was one of six children born to Rolland Robert Ayers and Ruth Elinor Vanderpyle Ayers. He grew up in a loving and musical family, graduating from Swartz Creek High School. He worked in the Buick automotive factory for several years, but his true passion was serving in the church with music and youth.

On March 6, 1982, he married his childhood sweetheart Cathy Wright in Flint, Michigan. John continued to serve in the church but felt God calling him to do more.

John went on to earn a Bachelor of Music from Campbellsville University, and a Master Degree in Church Music from Southern Seminary in Louisville, Kentucky. He was ordained to the Ministry from Central Baptist Church and God opened the door for him to serve as Music and Administration Minister at Warren Woods Baptist Church, which he faithfully served for 30 years.

John touched countless lives during his ministry. He directed an UPWARD Basketball program for over 350 children for 20 years, he directed a Community Adult Choir, Associational Adult choir, many musicals, directed the church orchestra, directed the praise and worship team and played many instruments. His favorite being the keyboard and drums. He performed both of his son's weddings and many others. John led many adult and youth mission trips across the US. He was blessed to be able to go to Africa on mission trip.

After retiring from his "official" career ministry, God led him into other ministries outside of the church, still touching lives. John loved to golf, work on home projects, spend time with his family, play and take naps (he was a baby whisperer) with his 5 special grandbabies, who were the apple of his eye. He had a listening ear, had words of wisdom, and always made you feel like you came to the right place. He was humble, caring and kind and his passing has left a void that will forever change the lives of those he has touched.

John is survived by his loving wife of 41 years, Cathy; sons Benjamin (Sarah) Ayers and Jacob (Shawna) Ayers; grandchildren Sophia Ayers, Eli Ayers, Ruby Ayers, Grayson Ayers and Lena Ayers; siblings, Kathi-Sue Speas, Beth (Bobby) Adams, Tammi (Jay) Parker, David Ayers, and Dawn (Tim) Messler; Nieces: Nephews; and extended family. He was predeceased by his parents.

A celebration of John's life will be held at the Westchester Baptist Church, 135 Westchester Drive, High Point, NC 27262 on Saturday, March 25, 2023 at 1:00 pm. The family will greet friends prior to the service starting at 12:00.

In lieu of flowers, memorial tributes would be appreciated to the American Cancer Society or Gideon Bibles.

We find comfort in knowing that John is now at peace with the Lord, and we take solace in our faith that we will be reunited with him one day in heaven. Rest in peace, John, and thank you for your service to God, Family and the Community.

JAMES CHRISTOPHER "JIM" HARRIS ('19), Junction City, Ky., Feb. 14, 2023

James Christopher Harris, 43, of Junction City, Kentucky, died Tuesday, February 14, at Ephraim McDowell Regional Medical Center.

Born January 5, 1980, in Blue Ash, Ohio, he was the son of John and Patricia Harris of Blue Ash. He was the Public Information Officer of the Junction City Fire Department for 10 years and was employed at Northpoint Training Center as a Corrections Officer for four years, working in the transportation department most recently. Jim was a member of the Junction City First Baptist Church.

In addition to his parents, other survivors include his wife, Kendra Peek Harris of Junction City; children, Seth Alan Freeman, Tristan James Harris, and Madelyn Marie Harris; siblings, Mark and Ann Harris, Kenny and Alita Harris, Vicki Harris-Mintz and Don Hunt, and John Harris II; nieces and nephews, Rachel (Nick) Helmer, Ryan Mintz, Eric Harris, Jenna Harris, Eve Peek and Cora Peek; Great-niece, Selah Helmer; father and mother-in-law, Steven and Lisa Peek; brother-in-law, Shane (Melia) Peek; seven aunts and seven uncles; his fire and corrections families; and a slew of others who loved him.

Described by many as a "gentle giant," Jim was a fierce defender of those he loved.

He dedicated his life to serving others, starting as a fire explorer as a teenager at the Blue Ash Fire Department. As an adult, he transitioned to becoming a medic and worked for Fort Mitchell Fire Department for a time. Following the tragedy of 9/11/2001, Jim was part of a group that spent 11 days at Ground Zero, conducting search and recovery efforts.

Over the years, Jim also served as the Public Information Officer at the Boyle County Fire Department and worked in the emergency room at the Ephraim McDowell Regional Medical Center. He achieved his dream of completing college in 2019, graduating with honors with a bachelor's degree from Campbellsville University through the Harrodsburg Conover Center. While there, he was a member of Alpha Chi honor society and a member of Campbellsville University Church Outreach, sharing his faith with others.

He truly enjoyed his job at the Northpoint Training Center and the impact he was able to make in the lives of others. Jim believed it was important to treat with respect those he dealt with in his capacity there, earning a great deal of respect back from those he encountered. He was proud to be a member of the Kentucky Department of Corrections Crisis Negotiation Team.

Jim was most proud of his three children: Seth, Tristan, and Mady.

He was an avid football fan and had a great love for the Cincinnati Bengals and Ohio State University.

King of the dad jokes and one-liners, Jim approached life with a smile and loved to make people laugh. He could walk in a room of strangers and make friends with everyone. He had confidence in everything he did, no matter if he was speaking to a room of fire trainees, dealing with medical issues, talking to the news media, or preaching to a Sunday evening crowd.

The funeral service will be at 11 a.m., Monday, February 20 at the Junction City First Baptist Church with Rev. Choe Sergent, and Brian Griffith officiating. Visitation will be 4 p.m.–7 p.m., Sunday, February 19 also at Junction City First Baptist Church. The burial will be at Grove Ridge Cemetery in Kings Mountain, Kentucky.

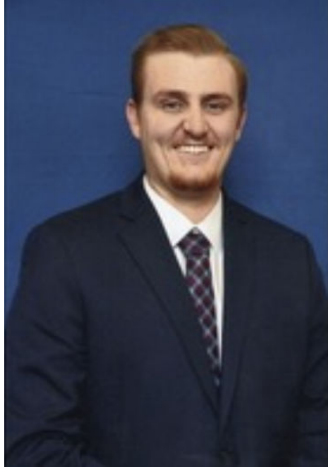

His absence will be felt by so many, possibly none more than his wife and love of his life, Kendra.

In lieu of flowers, the family suggests donations be made to Supporting Heroes and 9/11 Firefighter Foundation.
