

Jan. 16, 2012
For Immediate Release

CU Carver School of Social Work and Counseling holds pinning ceremony for December 2012 graduates

By Linda Waggener, marketing and media relations coordinator

CAMPBELLSVILLE, Ky. – Dr. Darlene Eastridge, dean, welcomed graduates and their families to Campbellsville University's Carver school of Social Work and Counseling pinning ceremony Dec. 14 in The Gheens Recital Hall.

Debbie Carter, field director and assistant professor of social work, introduced bachelor of social work graduates to be pinned.

Bachelor of social work degree recipients were: Leslie Carver, Campbellsville, Ky.; Terra French, Greensburg, Ky.; Emily Harlan, Campbellsville, Ky.; Bridgette Honaker, Somerset, Ky.; Heather Keith, Monticello, Ky.; Alison Lee, Hopkinsville, Ky.;

Amber Lowe, Monticello, Ky.; Almeta McGlothlin, Somerset, Ky.; Erin Price, Loretto, Ky.; Amanda Powers, Mt. Sherman, Ky.; Hannah Thompson, Lexington, Ky.; Tina Tooley, Louisville, Ky.;

Jason Underhill, French Lick, Ind.; Michaela Vaillant, Louisville, Ky.; Ashley Ware, Russell Springs, Ky.; and Rebecca Wright, Greensburg, Ky.

Master of social work degree recipients were: Kristin Garrett, Bluefield, Va.; Daniel Hall, Campbellsville, Ky.; Kim Jackson, Louisville, Ky.; Yenisei Martinez, Louisville, Ky.; Miranda Melton (Kellum), DePauw, Ind.; and David Rutledge, Louisville, Ky.

In presenting the students from CU's regional center in Somerset, Anne Adcock, assistant professor of social work, said, "Even though we are a satellite center, our Somerset graduates grasp the feel of the mission of CU; they are true Christian servant leaders. Three are going straight into our Carver School master's program."

Darrell Locke, assistant professor of social work, presented the students receiving their pins from the CU Louisville Education Center and said, "They completed the bachelor's program at LEC, and I'm really proud of them."

Dr. Kellie Cody, assistant professor of social work, introduced MSW recipient Daniel Hall, Campbellsville, Ky., with a special note, "I'm fortunate to have seen a few of my students go all the way from undergraduate to their bachelor's degrees and then to complete their master's," he said.

For information on the Carver School of Social Work and Counseling visit www.campbellsville.edu/carver-school or call (270) 789-5049.

Campbellsville University is a widely acclaimed Kentucky-based Christian university with over 3,000 students offering 63 undergraduate options, 17 master's degrees, five postgraduate areas and eight pre-professional programs. The website for complete information is www.campbellsville.edu.

-30-

CUTLINE FOR BSW GRADUATES# 2124:

Campbellsville University's baccalaureate of social work graduates were recognized in the annual Carver School of Social Work and Counseling pinning ceremony prior to the December commencement. Carver professors and graduates pictured from left are: Dr. Helen Mudd, BSW program director; Debbie Carter, field director and assistant professor of Social Work; Darrell Locke, assistant professor and Louisville site director; Alison Lee, Hannah Thompson, Jason Underhill, Leslie Carver, Emily Harlan, Terra French, Tina Tooley, Rebecca Wright, Erin Price, Amanda Powers, Heather Keith, Nekesha Durham, Bridgette Honaker, Ashley Ware and Anne Adcock, assistant professor and

Somerset site director. (Campbellsville University Photo by Linda Waggener)

CUTLINE FOR MSW GRADUATES # 2134:

Commencement day activities kept the other MSW graduates from attending the pinning ceremony, however, Dr. Kellie Cody, assistant professor of social work, did recognize MSW recipient Daniel Hall of Campbellsville, who, he said he'd had the good fortune to have as a student all the way from bachelor's to master's degree. (Campbellsville University Photo by Linda Waggener)