

Sept. 9, 2015
For Immediate Release

Campbellsville University is set to host Noon Organ Recital Series on Campus

By Jordan Antle, communications assistant

CAMPBELLSVILLE, Ky. – Campbellsville University’s eighth annual Noon Organ Recital Series is set to get underway on Sept. 15.

Zachary Klobnak, college organist at Centre College and director of music at the Presbyterian Church in Danville, will kick off the Noon Organ Recital Series with the first performance of the 2015-16 academic year on Tuesday, Sept. 15 at 12:20 p.m. in the Ransdell Chapel, 401 N. Hoskins Ave., Campbellsville, Ky.

Klobnak is a native of Iowa and earned his undergraduate degree in music from Luther College and his master’s from the University of Florida. He is a doctoral candidate in organ performance and literature at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign.

Klobnak is a member of the American Guild of Organists and the Presbyterian Association of Musicians and has held church music positions in Illinois, Florida and Iowa.

Klobnak will perform musical selections including the Processional by William Mathias, Sanctuary by Gwenyth Walker and Variations on ‘Ah, vous dirais-je, Maman!’ By Johann Christian Heinrich Rinck.

For more information on the Noon Organ Recital Series for the 2015-16 academic year and other upcoming recitals, contact the School of Music at (270) 789-5237.

Campbellsville University is a widely acclaimed Kentucky-based Christian university with more than 3,500 students offering 63 undergraduate options, 17 master’s degrees, five postgraduate areas and eight pre-professional programs. The website for complete information is campbellsville.edu.